OFFICIAL NEWS

Hard-hitting forces of the Netherlands Indies' allies (presumably bomber and fighter squadrons from the United States and Australia) were declared officially today to be taking part in vigorous counter action in which the fighting Dutch battled strong Japanese invasions of Borneo and Celebes.

Reporting the joint bombing of two Japanese cruisers, a destroyer and two transports yesterday and today, an official Dutch announcement declared that "our Allies are energetically taking part in the fighting against the invaders."

(The War Department at Washington said in its Sunday communique that American planes "attacked an enemy cruiser and two large transports in the Celebes sea with undetermined results. The Batavia report specificially mentioned Australian planes in action also in that area.)

Japanese parachutists and seaborne forces were battling doggedly in an effort to improve the positions they won early yesterday at the oil center island of Tarakan, off northeastern Borneo and on the northern arm of Celebes.

"The fight at both invasion points continues stubbornly," a special NEI armed forces statement declared.

U. S. AIRMEN IN BATTLE

Of the NEI and allied aerial blows at the shipping which carried and supported the invasion, the special statement said:

"Our allies are energetically taking part in the fight against the invaders.

"Allied planes yesterday shot down four Japanese planes over Minahassa (northern Celebes) while they further scored two direct hits on a Japanese cruiser and a near miss on a destroyer.

"This morning two Australian planes near Menado (where the Japanese landed on Celebes) were shot down in flames by the Japanese.

"Our bombers this morning scored a direct hit on a Japanese cruiser lying off Tarakan, while our (American made) Glenn Martin bombers also scored two direct hits on two Japanese transport ships lying there."

While fighting alongside their allies in vigorous defense of their own territory, Netherlands fliers also were reported taking part in Britain's defense of lower Malaya.

NEI fighters were said to have shot down three Japanese raiders attacking Singapore this morning. A single Dutch pilot was credited with two of the victories. Aneta, Netherlands Indies news agency, said his own plane finally was knocked out of the fight, but he parachuted to safety.

A communique reported bitter fighting on the little island of Tarakan off the northeast coast of WAR IN THE FAR EAST—Action in the Far East war theater today saw Gen. MacArthur's troops on the island of Luzon holding firm after hurling back a Jap onslaught, the firing of a Jap battleship at Davao in a bombing attack on the Jap fleet units based there and the destruction of 26 Jap planes at their Thailand bases by U. S. fliers operating from Burma. In Malaya, Singapore's defenders fought desperately to halt the advancing Japs, while the East Indies mustered forces to meet expected blows by Japs landed at four points on Tarakan and Celebes. Meanwhile, Jap forces retreating from Chungsha were reported completely routed, with 8000 killed, by the Chinese.

KEY MALAYAN CITY FALLS TO JAPANESE

Singapore
Jan. 12 (AP)

Official News

Loss of Kuala Lumpur, important rubber center and capital of the Federated Malay States, was indicated by the British today in a communique announcing that their troops had retreated to new positions before Seremban, 35 miles airline southeast of that city, under heavy Japanese assaults.

The British withdrawal dropped the battle lines to little more than 150 miles north of Johore Strait, the narrow channel over which a causeway connects Singapore island with the Malayan mainland.

More than two-thirds of Malaya thus were left in Japanese hands and the invaders were reported continuing their attack on the land and in the air.

FIGHTING SEVERE

(The Tokyo radio broadcast an official announcement this morning that Japanese troops had entered Kuala Lumpur Sunday.)

"Our withdrawal was closely followed up by enemy infantry, with continued attacks from enemy aircraft," said a terse communique announcing the British retreat.

While intimating the loss of Kuala Lumpur, the communique indicated that Selangor state, in which the city is situated, had not been entirely surrendered to the Japanese.

"Severe fighting continues in the Selangor area," the bulletin said.

Onrushing Russian soldiers have broken the new German winter defense line between Vyazma and Bryansk, on the central front, by capturing the steel-producing center of Lyudinovo, it was reported today.

The midnight communique announced reoccupation of Lyudinovo, 40 miles north of Bryansk, and capture of the important railway junction of Tikhonova Pustyn, a few miles north of Kaluga, half-way between Moscow and Bryansk.

The latest Russian advance meant, it was said, Soviet forces were firmly astride the vital railways linking Smolensk and the Ukraine; that Bryansk, a major railway junction, was definitely threatened; and that Orel, 75 miles east of Bryansk on the Moscow-Kharkov railroad, had been flanked.

Britain and the United States were reliably reported today to be renewing their pressure for war bases in neutral Eire.

New overtures, combined with a concerted British press campaign for ports and airfields in Eire, both to defend the island and to aid the Allied war in the Atlantic, so far have been mainly informal but official, it was said.

Japan today loosed the full strength of its forces in the Philippines in a major assault against all American and Filipino defense lines and fortifications, the War Department disclosed in a communique which said:

"A heavy artillery battle is in progress along the entire front."

At the same time the Japanese renewed aerial assaults against both the front lines and fortifications on Manila Bay, including fortress of Corregidor.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commanding the defense units, reported to the War Department, according to the communique, that Jap troops occupying Manila have moved to suppress use of radios by civilians.

HEAVIER JAP THRUST LOOMS

"This," the War Department stated, "apparently is designed to prevent the reception of broadcasts from the United States and England."

Observers, meanwhile, believed increased pressure of the Jap offensive was an indication Gen. MacArthur's forces would face heavier and more powerful attacks.

Washington military observers predicted the invaders would bolster their force and again try to smash defending units by sheer power.

The renewed drive was expected momentarily. Experts anticipated it as a swift follow-up to Japan's unsuccessful thrust against MacArthur's right flank and the resumption of bombing forays in the Manila Bay region.

While combined American-Filipino fighters repelled land and air attack, U. S. Army bombers struck

Curley Must Pay Hub $500 Week 91 Times

Former Governor James M. Curley, after a long legal fight, today was ordered to pay $500 a week to the city of Boston on a judgment which totals approximately $45,500, involving settlement of claims for lang damage to the General Equipment Corp., when Curley was mayor in 1933.

The order was issued in West Roxbury Court by Judge Bert Holland after an extensive study of Curley's accounts.

Curley must make the first payment next Monday and installments must continue for approximately 90 succeeding weeks.

The total judgment includes court costs and 6 per cent interest since Dec. 4, 1940. Costs total $106 and the interest is approximately $2770.

Original claim awarded the city was $42,629.58.

James M. Curley said to have been fraudulently withheld from the Hub at the time the General Equipment case was settled for $85,000.

BLOW TO CURLEY

Curley, sitting beside his counsel, Wendell Murray, appeared stunned by the legal defeat. He leaned over to confer with Murray immediately after Judge Holland issued his order.

Reviewing Curley's expenditures since Jan. 31, 1941, original date of execution of the superior court order, Atty. Edward F. McClennen, special counsel for the city, said the former mayor received $59,200 in that period.

He pointed out, in refutation of Curley's claim he was unable to pay, that Curley had received $29,200 since July 1, 1941, according to the defendant's accounting.

SAPPING STRENGTH OF NIPPON FORCES IS MAIN M'ARTHUR JOB

By AUSTEN LAKE

Let no American discount the disadvantage under which U. S. and European troops are fighting the barbarous bronze men of Japan.

In the humid jungle of Luzon and the vegetation-tangled terrain of Malaya the Japs, inured to tropic discomfort, accustomed to hardship and a few handfuls of rice or dried fish and imbued with a religious fanaticism, are better fitted to cope with the rawness of East Indian nature.

Americans at home, especially those of us in the comparative security of the East and Middle West, must realize the gravity of the Far East situation where the news is generally bad. Gen. MacArthur's brave legions are encompassed on the northeastern lip of Manila Bay on a 30-mile-wide Bataan peninsula that is covered with thick forests and high, rugged mountains. At best he can only hope to delay and debilitate an enemy which is intent on further conquest in other Pacific areas.

Along the granite backbone of British Malaya, bordered on the west by narrow, swampy flatlands and on the east by fringes of sandy beach and thick, impassable jungles infested by tiger and crocodile, a conglomerate army of Indians, British and Australians are being thrown back with the canny Nips thrusting systematically down both coasts. An all-out siege of Singapore, akin to MacArthur's heroic stand, seems imminent.

DUTCH STRIKE BACK

On the northernmost fringe of the Dutch Archipelago, jealously coveted goal of Jap imperialism, four footholds have been established by invading troops and the cancerous procedure of spreading through this heavily populated, mineral and material rich islands is meeting sturdy resistance with doughty Dutch fliers and naval units striking back.

On the jungle-choked island of Borneo the British protectorate of Sarawak is overwhelmed with the Japs pressing through an almost uncharted wilderness toward the center of the petroleum industry, the Netherland port of Talaka.

In all these combat areas where Allied commands report taking terrible toll of the enemy in men and material, Japanese have established airfields, troop reserves and supply bases under a concerted, intelligent plan which shows evidence of being formulated years in advance of the

Hub Cold Spell Ends As Snow Begins to Melt

Warm rays of the sun, beaming from fair skies, abruptly ended the cold spell today and turned suburban Boston's icy streets into soft slush.

Weather bureau experts said the mercury may rise to as high as 38 degrees by afternoon, in contrast to the minimum of 16 early this morning.

The change came as welcome relief to the city, whose streets have been swept by frigid blasts of wind. Long stretches of Boston harbor are frozen solid, including a 15-square-mile area reaching from East Boston to Winthrop and as far out as Apple island.

General cloudiness was predicted for tonight.

PRICE CEILING SPURS RETREAD TIRE BUYING

Sales of retreaded and recapped tires jumped in New England today as the result of Price Administrator Leon Henderson's announcement of price ceilings, even though the new schedule does not become effective until next Monday, Jan. 19.

Price reductions were reported in many localities. This was seen as an immediate after-effect of Henderson's protest against profiteering, which he declared "has reached serious proportions."

In addition, numerous motorists started buying rebuilt tires in anticipation of a much greater rush for the goods when the new rates become official.

Auto owners tended to postpone purchases during the past week, surveys show, in hopes a federal order such as now announced by the Office of Price Administration would put an end to exorbitant prices.

Many dealers were said to be asking almost twice what Adminis-

Conferees Prepare to Rewrite Battered Price Control Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—There was talk at the Capitol today of 25 cent cotton—music in many a southerner's ear—as a joint Senate and House conference committee prepared to rewrite the Administration's battered Price Control Bill.

The measure was approved Saturday by the Senate, 51 to 1, Sen. Nye (R.) of North Dakota, the dissenter, opposed it because it contained no wage controls. The House previously had passed the measure in much different form.

Sen. Brown (D.) of Michigan, chairman of the Senate conferees and opponent of most of the amendments forced into the bill by an adamant farm bloc, said that as the measure now stood it probably would permit cotton to go to 22 cents a pound before any price controls could be instituted. Cotton now is about 18 cents a pound.

But some members of the farm bloc said they thought cotton might reach 25 cents a pound, if all of the amendments were retained.

Even some Senate members who voted for the bill expressed dissatisfaction with it. Sen. Vandenberg (R.) Michigan, cast an "aye" vote and then turned to a colleague to remark in a voice audible in the galleries:

"But I don't like it."

Brown estimated that the Senate version of the bill would permit food price increases of 25 per cent above present levels, largely because of an amendment by Sen. O'Mahoney (D.) of Wyoming, providing for upward revisions of farm "parity" figures on the basis of rises in industrial wages. O'Mahoney disputed Brown's contention.

In dispute also was a provision inserted by the Senate farm bloc, over President Roosevelt's written objection, requiring approval by the secretary of agriculture for any proposed ceiling on the price of a basic farm commodity.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard, defending this provision asserted that "we need those prices which will secure the maximum production of the necessary foods and the minimum production of the unnecessary ones."

Our famous automatic plan PROHIBITS high prices—first prices must be LOW or DOWN they go ¼, ½, ¾ after 12, 18 or 24 selling days. Goods given away to charitable institutions after 30 selling days.

Odd Twists In News Not All About War

Solves Tire Shortage

WINSTED, Ct., Jan. 12 (AP)—Tire rationing isn't going to bother Anthony Bernardo as long as subfreezing temperatures prevail.

He took four cast-off tires, stuffed them with sawdust, wired them to the rims of his car and, through a slit, soaked them with water. It was 20 below zero at the time and now he has solid tires.

"They're a little bumpy," he said, "but so are the roads."

Couldn't Bring it Home

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12 (AP)—An argument over division of the spoils meant a trip to jail on larceny charges for three men who admitted stealing a 10-pound piece of bacon from a wholesale house. They got away with the bacon but stopped at a nearby corner and argued about who would keep it. Two patrolmen heard the noise and hauled them in.

Benevolent Buddy

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 12 (AP)—When two soldiers emptied their wallets at a railroad station to purchase tickets back to camp, a handsomely dressed man handed them a $50 bill for fare and walked away.

He then went over to a group of marine recruits waiting for a train and bought them 10 cartons of cigarettes.

Fast Talk

OGDEN, Utah, Jan. 12 (AP) — A pistol toter confronted Mrs. Edwin Stratford, daughter of Ogden Police Chief Rial C. Moore, as she answered a knock at the door. There followed this Q. and A.:

"Is your husband home?"

"Yes."

"Has he a gun?"

"Yes, and here he comes."

The gunman fled without waiting to see.

LANDIS GIVES PARTING TIP: 'DO YOUR BIT'

Dean James M. Landis today was Washington-bound to take over directorship of national defense after warning that every man, woman and child must be enlisted for the war effort and that they must accept their part without whimpering.

The Harvard Law School head declared the Army and Navy couldn't do it all, during an address to members of the American Jewish Congress at Hotel Bradford, and added that the sacrifices that are to come must be accepted gladly by those at home.

Landis hinted at rationing of food with his statement that tire rationing is only a small beginning.

"It won't be long before the normal foods we have been getting will not be there," he said. "We soon may be faced with diversion of some of our food to other channels. If this happens, we will have to adjust our diets to protect our health and well-being.

"We are fighting for the right to be Catholics, Protestants and Jews and there must be a complete subordination of self and organization to the common good. There is no glamour to civilian defense but we must learn to be spiritually and physically tough. Upon that background the whole program of civilian defense must be envisioned."

Rabbi Joseph H. Shubow presided and made a vigorous attack on Francis B. Moran, leader of the recently-dissolved Christian Front group.

He's Got Another Belt Coming, This One on the Chin!

BERNE, Jan. 12 (INS)—The Turkish radio today broadcast what it termed a "model of raw, crude propaganda" today—and no one could deny that the model certainly was a whopper.

The example picked up by the Turkish radio was a Japanese radio statement, picked up in Persia, alleging that Hitler is a Mohammedan and a direct descendant of Mohammed.

Furthermore, the Jap version claimed that Adolf was born "with a holy green belt around his body."

Firemen, Save My—

HITLER CONVINCES NAZIS HE'S INSTRUMENT OF THE DIVINE

By PIERRE J. HUSS

Copyright, 1942. All Rights Reserved

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—Hitler left the Dome des Invalides, as I later found out, touched with a determination to carry out among the first things after the war the great plan for his life after death.

I knew that in years gone by he had gone on the assumption that death would not find him a very old man; he used to plan and work out blueprints for terrific construction projects in Germany by the pile, throwing millions of men into the jobs and billions of marks.

Pierre Huss

He was in a hurry then, racing his monuments against the Reaper and always saying to people that the great things he would leave undone would never be finished by those coming after him.

He was firmly convinced that the furious pace and the epochal age in which he lived and moved (he really is convinced he is the motivating force and the molder of that age) would terminate soon after his death, swinging the world by nature and inclination into a long span of digestive process marked by a sort of quiet inactivity.

People in his "thousand year Reich" would build monuments to him and go around to touch and look at the things he had built, he thought.

He said as much on that glorified visit of his to Rome in 1938, adding that a thousand years hence the greatness and not the ruins of his own time must intrigue the people of those faraway days. For believe it or not, that is how the mind of this man Hitler projects itself without a blush over the centuries.

FEAR DELUGE

This grasp of the Nazis for everything that assures them the distant future and the never-mentioned fear right down in the bottom of their hearts that after Hitler might come the deluge to sweep them away, holds the key to their tireless efforts through all available means to foster and create around Hitler not only the sacred aura of infallibility but also a state of mind and attitude toward him approaching the mystic.

They want people to sit in their homes in the deep valleys and villages of the fatherland and talk in awed tones of the Fuehrer sent to them in their darkest days like a gift from heaven. To them, a short salute from that right arm of his should be taken as a blessing from the altar; there can be no question of the Fuehrer's wisdom, of his holy inspiration. He and Goebbels want it that way, and after a while it just about got that way in the provinces around Germany.

Without batting an eye, Hitler himself called on God and Divine Providence in many a public speech, achieving at times a tone which made you think of cathedrals and solemn moments. He was playing on the minds of his Germans, striving to create the mystic, and pounding home to them that he is a mortal with inspiration and a Fuehrer with a divine mission.

WAR GIVES BOOST

Thus it has come about that inside Germany today, as a foreign correspondent, you may take an attitude against the Nazis on many things and at times even risk your personal safety or their fury with sharp criticism and exposure of something which might have happened or is going on in the land.

I should say that the war thus far, has given him a boost in his efforts to nail the German mind to the temple of mysticism. The Nazis themselves, drunk or sober, will tell you at length that Hitler will live after death. They have steeped their own mind in this fanatical conception and conviction, and are never weary of playing this chord on the hearts of all Germans. They get results, and I believe that after a while Hitler and Goebbels and Rosenberg will have molded the minds of a large part of the German people to accept the drug in this magic cup.

So it comes about that Hitler, assuming that his Third Reich would outlast the war, might reach the point where he can prepare on this earth the material means and methods of keeping his grip after death on the hearts and minds of men.

The plans for it are all made, and the blueprint lies in the vault of the Fuehrer House in Munich. In fact, those plans are a change from those bored and drilled up through the throat of an Alpine peak to build a solitary Eagle's Nest for Hitler high above the clouds of his mountain chalet in Berchtesgaden.

PLAN SURPRISE

They say it was built without Hitler's knowledge by a favorite architect who later died. It was intended as a great surprise to the Fuehrer from those of his close devotees, and you might say, from that grotesque circle of Nazis clinging around him like blindfolded apostles.

But it is difficult to stay there more than one night, for cooking and other essentials such as running water are not easy to have at such a height. Consequently Hitler goes there only once in a great while in the afternoon, and in fact, since the war has hardly visited it at all.

As in many other cases, he seems to have lost interest, probably to a large extent because his mind is filled with another plan for himself for life after death.

HITLER
Plans Life After Death

Pierre J. Huss, for eight years Berlin manager of International News Service, has told how Hitler looked down at the tomb of Napoleon in Paris and vowed he would profit by that conqueror's mistakes in life and after death. Today Huss tells how Hitler has deluded himself and others into thinking he is the instrument of Divine providence.

U. S. Asked to Help 7000 Jobless Auto Salesmen

Relief for approximately 7000 automobile salesmen facing loss of their jobs in Massachusetts was sought today in a plea made to Washington officials by Fred A. Ordway, president of the Boston Automobile Dealers' Ass'n.

Because production of new cars has stopped, hundreds of salesmen who are middle-aged men with families soon will face the most critical period of their lives, unless helped in some way by the government, Ordway said.

"We have asked for relief," he said, "because with this shutdown in effect there is nothing most of these men can do in the auto selling line except wait until the war is over."

He urged that the government help find jobs, such as statistical work, surveys and reports, for which seasoned salesmen who know people and the procedure of business dealings would be well trained.

MORE DRASTIC TIRE RATIONING NOW SEEN

By PAUL GESNER AND JOHN BECKLEY

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (Wide World)—Don't underestimate the rubber shortage. The authorities, if anything, have understated the situation. Competent observers here believe much more drastic rationing of rubber soon may be necessary.

Retreading of tires will not solve the automobile problem completely as many have tended to assume. Statistics show there probably will not be enough rubber—either crude or reclaimed—for civilians to have their tires retreaded at will.

If civilians wish to have tires for essential purposes, the only solution is to eliminate all needless driving. Automobiles cannot continue to roll at their accustomed pace even on retreaded tires.

Here's how the International Statistical Bureau, Inc., a research organization, looks at the domestic rubber situation:

"On a peace basis, present stocks would be high. Today they are dangerously low.

OUTLOOK BLEAK

"The prospect for civilian consumption of rubber for 1942 is definitely bleak. Some use of reclaims will be permitted; but if we are to supply the armed forces freely, stock our allies and protect our good neighbor policy, it is possible that even these supplies will be cut off later in the year. It will be particularly true if the war continues to go against the Allies in the Far East and Singapore falls."

Many substitute sources of rubber have been suggested, Brazilian wild rubber, guayule and synthetic rubber. The important thing, however, is that rubber obtained from all these substitute sources in 1941 was less than one good month's supply.

Except for certain special uses, none of these substitutes is, in normal times, a real competitor for natural rubber. They have not been developed and cannot be made to fill the breach overnight—nor perhaps for several years.

IMPORTS AT STANDSTILL

The national industrial conference board estimates that 99 per cent of our rubber imports came from areas now occupied or threatened by the Japanese. Roughly, half of it comes from Malaya, another third from the Netherlands Indies, and the rest from French Indo-China and Ceylon.

Shipping sources say the entire Far Eastern rubber traffic is practically at a standstill. If Singapore holds out, probably some rubber will be convoyed to this country. If it fails, the American motorist will have to grin and bear it.

If rubber supplies are so tight, why doesn't OPM order construction of more synthetic rubber plants?

They have already done so. But since the start of the war, such contracts have not been announced. Previously Washington had disclosed the capacity and location of each new factory. This policy accounts for the apparent lack of new construction.

$50,000 Blaze In Brockton

BROCKTON, Jan. 12—Fire swept the Clark Block in the center of the business district today, causing damage estimated at $50,000 and giving firemen a strenuous battle before it was brought under control.

A general alarm was sounded bringing aid from nearby Whitman and Stoughton when the blaze threatened the Brockton National Bank, which adjoins the three-story Clark Block on Main st.

Aid Children Made Motherless by Fire

WILMINGTON, Jan. 12—With town officials and the American Legion leading the drive, residents today took charge of nine motherless and homeless children, whose mother, Mrs. Benita Deveau, and five-year-old sister, Elaine, were burned to death in a blaze which destroyed their home.

Residents contributed a new house for the father, Peter Deveau, and the children whose ages range from 3 to 20 years of age. Also turned over to the family were three barrels of warm clothing as well as a fund of $250.

Barking Dog Saves 9 in Roxbury Fire

A pet Chow dog today was credited with saving the lives of nine persons, including four young children, when flames swept a three-story dwelling on Fort st., Roxbury.

Frantic barking of the animal awakened Mrs. Muriel Walsh, who bundled up her two babies, Anna, 1, and Peter, 2, and carried them from her top floor bedroom.

At the same time, other members of the family awakened and escaped. They were Mrs. Delia Cahill, 50; her two sons, John, 21, and Jeremiah, 23, and a daughter, Catherine, 16; Mrs. Dorothy Hawes, 35, and her daughter, Rita, 6.

On the way to the fire, Ladder 4 was in collision with a car in Harrison ave. Two firemen, John Devine, 42, of Ronan st., Dorchester, and Charles Gilddere, 41, of Aukland st., Dorchester, were injured in the crash. Devine was treated at City Hospital for back injuries.

The fire, caused by careless use of matches, according to fire officials, was confined to the third story of the house, with loss estimated at $1000.

JUDGE O.K'S 2 NEW TOBIN OUSTER NAMES

Clearing the way for ouster proceedings against Mayor Tobin, Judge Vincent Brogna of Suffolk Superior Court, today allowed the addition of two names to the original citizens' petition for permission to seek the Mayor's removal.

The judge's action, made effective as of Dec. 31, provided the petitioners with seven signatures—two more than the required five—and removed the last obstacle in the way of the ouster hearing before three superior court judges.

PROCEEDINGS SNARLED

The ouster attempt had been snarled after it was discovered the signature of one of the original signers of the complaint to the court was not on the petition granted by Judge Brogna on Jan. 2.

Mrs. Ann Childs was away from the city and was unable to sign the petition, counsel for the group seeking the petition declared.

But in place of her signature, two new ones appeared, and the question of the legality of these delayed granting of the petition until Judge Brogna's ruling today.

JUDGES TO SIT

Judge Brogna on Jan. 2 wrote that he had found reasonable cause to believe a corrupt practice had been committed.

The citizens' committee alleges, among other things:

That Mayor Tobin, himself or through others, directly or indirectly spent in excess of the legal $3200 limit at the election, and that more than $80,000 was spent, including all contributions from individuals, political committees and other sources.

Notified by udge Brogna's ruling, counsel for the citizens' group, former Lieut.-Gov. Francis E. Kelly, Judge Emil Fuchs and Atty. Albert est—said they would proceed at once with filing of the petition to invalidate Tobin's election.

It now remains for Chief Justice John P. Higgins to name three judges t ohear the ouster petition

Tobin Aide Again Proves Diplomat

Joseph T. Kelly, secretary to Mayor Tobin, has been known for some time as the "ace diplomat" of City Hall and today he gave further evidence to his claim to that title.

When Mayor Tobin left for Washington last night two schools of thought arose as to who should be acting mayor. One group held out for Acting-Council President William F. Dwyer, while the other insisted on City Clerk Wilfred J. Doyle.

Mr. Kelly stepped into the dispute and declared in order to insure the legality of all legal papers he would ask the city clerk to sign them.

On the other hand, Mr. Dwyer will carry on the routine business of the city such as attending functions and interviewing distinguished guests. Unless, of course, the city council chooses its permanent president today.

Police Probe Winthrop Boy's Death by Snowplow

Winthrop police today investigated the death of six-year-old Robert Bjornson, killed by a snowplow near his Center st., Winthrop, home.

According to police the boy was pushing a toy cart in Winthrop st. when he was run over by a town plow-truck operated by Joseph Flannery, 40, of Winthrop st.

Flannery said the youngster suddenly stepped out from between two parked cars. The rear wheels of the heavy truck passed over his body.

Hail Soldier Firefighters

Soldiers stationed on Peddock's Island won praise today for a gallant battle which saved the island's summer colony after raging flames destroyed two cottages.

More than 60 soldiers volunteered their services to the regular fire company but were hampered in their efforts because all ponds were frozen over. They finally were forced to stretch hose lines to the harbor waters.

The blaze started in a cottage at the west end of the island, occupied by an Army cook, Peter Houle, and his family. Houle and his wife suffered severe burns, and Houle a severe wrist laceration, as they attempted to save valuables from the flames.

N. E. Price Chief Opens Offices

The Federal Office of Price Administration—with broad responsibility to prevent inflation and protect consumers—today opened a regional office for the six New England states at 17 Court st.

Headed by Kenneth B. Backman of Newton, former manager of the Boston Better Business Bureau, and staffed by federal experts, the office will study and investigate the need for price ceilings and inform the public of all OP actions.

Backman was appointed Friday. The executive officer is Carl Rogers of Boston, transferred from WPA duties and former private secretary of Harry Hopkins, and the regional inspector is Frank L. Downey of North Easton, brought here from Washington.

Soldiers May Carry Own Gangrene Cure

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12 (AP)—Soldiers may be carrying their own medicine into battle soon for prompt action in treating wounds of war.

Dr. Guy A. Caldwell, professor of clinical orthopedics at Tulane University Medical School, today announced successful control, experimentally, of gas gangrene in compound fractures by the immediate application of sulfathiazole.

"Treatment could be made effective in battle by giving every soldier a phial of sulfathiazole to be applied to wounds as a first aid dressing before the arrival of first aid units and ambulance crews," he said.

"If successful in clinical use, it would be of immeasurable importance for civilians during air raids."

Success lies in application within an hour, Caldwell said. Most of the effectiveness of the drug is lost if the treatment is delayed.

Discovery of an agent to combat gas gangrene is of particular importance, Calwell asserted, because a drug killing that bacteria also will destroy all other types of infection.

Army Asks Practice Blackouts for N. E.

Practice blackouts in New England were today requested by Brig. Gen. John C. McDonnell, First Interceptor Command, in a letter received by Joseph M. Loughlin, acting regional director of civilian defense.

The request, which is tanamount to an order, asked the regional office to furnish the Army officials with a statement as to the expected elapsed time from the receipt of a blackout order at the district warning center to the completion of an effective blackout throughout the entire warning district.

Loughlin said that he had at present no figures or estimates such as the Army requires. He declared, however, immediate steps will be taken to see that such figures are made available.

Loughlin further said he will notify all New England State chairmen of civilian defense of the Army's request and ask them to act in accordance as soon as is possible. Each State will choose its own districts for the test blackouts.

Here in Massachusetts it is expected the tests will be made within the week at places which as yet have not been designated.

New French Army Purge Predicted

BERN, Jan. 12 (INS)—The Vichy correspondent of the newspaper Gazette de Lausanne predicted today a further purge of the French army within the framework of the Vichy regime's "rejuvenation" program.

The "rejuvenation" scheme was described as involving increases in pay and greater expense allowance for young officers, including second lieutenants and lieutenants.

1200 IN FIRST HUB OFFICE RAID DRILL

Boston's first air raid drill in a downtown office building, was successfully staged today when more than 1200 employes and executives of the Employers Liability Assurance Corp., Milk st., executed the test in four minutes.

Under supervision of the building's chief air warden, Elliot P. Knight, nine floors of the 13-story building were cleared with the entire personnel taking "shelter" on the five middle floors.

A siren was sounded at 10:30 from the air raid observation post, atop the building. The first blast brought 85 wardens to their posts.

On the second blast the workers left their desks and assembled in single file and marched to their assigned "shelter-floors."

The feminine workers went first and male employes followed.

From the upper part of the building the workers went to the 7th, 8th and 9th floors while the lower floor workers shared the 5th and 6th stories. On the "shelter floors" the women lined up cilsely against the walls while the men formed outside lines, so as to protect the fair sex from "flying glass."

On a third signal "all-out" the workers returned to their duties.

Sergt. Andrew Hagerty, in charge of air raid protection for police division two, who has been assisting in raid drill work, was among the observers.

Nazi Army Purge Rumor Gains Force

LONDON, Jan. 12 (AP)—Widespread rumors that Adolf Hitler had carried out a purge among his army generals appeared strengthened by a Stockholm report today quoting a German spokesman as saying that changes in the German army would be announced "at a suitable time."

The rumors that all was not going well within Germany, and particularly between Hitler and the army, began to circulate freely with the first German setbacks on the Russian front six weeks ago, and they received impetus three weeks ago when Hitler suddenly dismissed his commander-in-chief, Gen. Walther Von Brauchitsch, veteran leader and army aristocrat.

Today there came a new twist. The British radio broadcast a report that "rumors are rife in Berlin" that Gen. Ernst Udet, quartermaster-general of the German air force, "did not die as was officially declared but has been executed."

The flier, a crack World War ace and internationally known movie and stunt flier, was officially stated to have been killed in an accident Nov. 17 while testing "a new weapon." Hitler himself and Reichsmarshal Goering, the German air chief, attended the Udet funeral in the air ministry Nov. 21, Berlin dispatches said at the time.

Swedish newspaper dispatches from Berlin today reported the execution of four persons in the German capital Friday. One was said to be Fritz Winkelman, described as an economic ministry official, executed for the illegal hawking of food and clothing ration tickets.

Two, apparently Czechoslovakians, were accused of hiding weapons and the fourth, said to be a Pole, was charged with espionage.

Whatever is going on inside Germany, now cut off from direct communication with the united nations, one thing is certain: the Nazis have become more touchy than ever before on the subject of news accounts unfavorable to Germany appearing abroad.

PARTED—After receiving a letter from Marjorie Parsons (top), the girl he courted for four years, telling him he "was the finest fellow I ever met, but I do not love you anymore," Robert Sorenson, Chicago artist-photographer, ended his life with poison. He was found dead at the school of photography which he attended.

Curley Ordered to Pay $500 a Week 91 Times

tee; $2652 in payments for his secretary, chauffeur, gardener and house servants. All these are offered with vouchers," said McClennen.

LIVING COSTS $931.13

On vouchers, McClennen stated, Curley paid out $8996 to bring his total expenditures since July 1 to $16,648.85.

"Of all his disbursements only two items come within the provisions of the court's order," McClennen said.

Living expenses, approved by the court in its original order, amounted to $931.13 since July 1, the lawyer reported. Payments on his car totaled $628.20.

McClennen pointed out that these expenditures were $12,551.15 less than Curley received since July 1. He added that Curley's Jamaicaway residence and adjoining property are assessed for $59,800, with the former mayor's equity approximately $30,000.

LISTS HIS HOLDINGS

Listing further assets of Curley, the city's counsel claimed he had interests in the Christie tank, the Governor mercury mines, shares in a brewery, an annuity policy yielding $1200 annually and property at Buzzard's Bay.

Murray argued every effort had been made by Curley to realize on his assets, commenting:

"When desperation is greatest it is hardest to realize on one's assets."

He claimed a "grossly exaggerated amount" was asked by McClennen.

SANTOSUOSSO $2 A WEEK

Today's judgment climaxed a court battle of nearly four years by Curley against returning money the supreme court had found he improperly received from damage claims at the time of the building of Kenmore subway extension.

Judge Fred W. Fosdick handed down a decision Feb. 16, 1938, awarding the city more than $63,000 from Curley and Dr. Joseph Santosuosso, Boston lawyer.

Curley at that time was ordered to pay $37,957, plus interests and costs. Santosuosso's payment was set at $25,304. He was recently ordered to repay it at $2 weekly.

The full bench of the Supreme Court in November, 1940, affirmed judgments and litigation was continued by the two defendants, who claimed they were unable to pay.

8000 Japs Die Fleeing Trap

CHUNGKING, Jan. 12 (AP)—Chinese news dispatches declared today that Japanese forces retreating northward from Changsha after suffering a stunning defeat had been completely routed while trying to escape a Chinese encirclement and had left more than 8000 dead on the field of battle.

The Chinese captured approximately 1000 prisoners and large quantities of equipment during the battle, which took place between the Laotao and Milo rivers about 30 miles north of Changsha, Hunan Province capital, the dispatches said.

Chinese Swarm Burma Road on Way to Fight Japs

CHUNGKING, Jan. 12 (AP)—Christopher Sharman of a Quaker ambulance unit, who has just made a round trip on the Burma Road, declared today:

"It was chock-full of Chinese troops moving westward toward the border with tanks, motorized artillery, Bren guns and light weapons.

"On both trips I met thousands upon thousands of Chinese troops. They were well-equipped, crack fighters, all moving west."

leading southward to Singapore, is in Negri Sembilan state, which borders Selangor state on the south.

The British bulletin also announced that the Japanese had landed a party of nine men dressed as Malayans from fishing boats yesterday in the Buckitchurang area of southeast Johore province but said that all had been captured.

It was the first Japanese landing reported in Johore.

Heavy Japanese air activity was reported over a wide area of Malaya, with British aircraft swapping blows with the invaders.

Listed among the targets of Japanese bombers was Seremban, where slight damage caused to road communications was said to have been repaired, and Muar, on the southwest coast, where the Japanese machine-gunned the town and sank a small ship in the harbor, the communique said.

Singapore also was attacked several times today, but damage and casualties were described as light.

The stepped-up aerial warfare was accompanied by indications that planes stationed in Burma had launched an offensive against the bases from which Japanese bombers have been supporting the overland drive on Singapore.

WANDERER CRITICALLY ILL

John Barry, 70, resident of a private rest home on Revere st., Jamaica Plain, was in serious condition at City Hospital today after police found him wandering in nearby Everett st. He was found to be suffering from pneumonia.

SAPPING JAP STRENGTH M'ARTHUR'S MAIN JOB

undertaking. Germany's scheme of conquest in Europe was similarly devised long in advance of actual operation, while we, like England, started from scratch.

These are established facts, not alarmisms, and Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Citizen must realize that Japan, with its contempt for human life, including that of its own soldiery, its savage, treacherous initiative and its shrewd and competent generalship, has sunk the iron deep in our national flank.

MUST HAVE HELP

The Dutch, British, Chinese and USAFFE Americans are agreed that rescue in these dire days depends on one central factor, to wit and viz, the prompt delivery of planes, tanks, men and munitions from the United States and the swift, aggressive employment of Allied naval force. The area of Pacific operation, both they and Washington knows, is essentially the responsibility of America. Help, when it comes, it must come from our direction . . . and quickly. Else the war in the East will be dragged out indefinite years at painful cost and a possible stalemate which is tantamount to defeat.

The answer then is redoubling national energies and awakening of the people to the full realisms of our jeopardy. For, as pernicious an enemy as the Japs and Germans are without our borders is the "unrealistic lassitude and complacence" which, in some part, still exists within, as it did in Canada before the sudden coming of the Blitz, in England before Dunkirk and in France before the flanking of its Maginot line.

How quick and what quantity U. S. sinews of war are reaching the beleaguered spots of the China archipelago is not being broadcast, of course, by the government. Delivery is hazardous across the South Pacific or around South Africa where the full complement of the Jap fleet is patrolling the waters and where U. S. naval escorts are required to escort our most precious of all cargoes, the troops.

NEED MORE SHIPS

Presumably, as fast as planes and tanks come off American assembly lines and are railroaded to Pacific shipping ports, quantities are loaded and carried to sea. Though here again the shipments are probably far below the immediate needs of the Allied land forces. Bottoms, diverted to the Atlantic and England's needs, are conceiveably below the requirements to handle accumulating cargoes at San Francisco, which is to the West what Halifax has been to the East.

Thus, as has been the case at Halifax where huge stores of all kinds, from dry foods to guns, motors and armaments are piled high on the docks waiting for freighters, the warehouses of the West are said to be gradually choking with equipment while overtaxed ships ply the long route to Australia.

TO EXHAUST JAPS

Thus should Japan, in its all out, muscle-cracking thrusts at the Philippines, Malaya, Borneo and the Dutch Indies, capture those vital outposts, the problem of transportation would then resolve, not into freight shipments, but into a sea-filling fleet of plane carriers to bomb and exhaust the Jap Navy. The tanks, except as a home defense army, or for service in Libya and Britain would be useless.

The United States Asiatic fleet, forced from its base at Cavite in the Japanese capture of Manila, is presumed to have sped to Netherlands and Australian bases. There are brief announcements of operations in the China Sea. But there too America's naval strength is, perforce, divided. Our long Pacific coast must be patrolled. Panama is a vital and vulnerable artery. The lanes of the Atlantic between Greenland, Iceland and England must be safeguarded. Hawaii and Alaska must not be neglected. Thus, with our far-flung possessions, the United States Navy cannot help but be spread thinly and our combat unit in Asiatic seas is limited to a fraction of the Jap fleet, which operates at full strength within convenient range of its home bases.

JAP LINES THIN

Chinese successes before Canton and the reported slaughter of some 30,000 Japanese hints at the absorption of men, guns, planes and tanks for the Jap assault on the Allied islands. For Japan, too, has its land problems and must maintain sufficient might to protect its vast holdings in China and safeguard the Russian frontier. Its lines are stretched thin but as yet not so thin as to threaten a dangerous crack at any point. Its losses, confessedly large in proportion to the defending armies, have not drained its manpower and U. S. military experts estimate that it can recruit another million men without jeopardizing its industrial effect.

Thus while America flexes its muscles and hustles its huge $59,000,000,000 program and while U. S. citizens feel the first pinch of priorities and up-creeping taxes, Japan has snatched opportunity by the forelock and gambles for high stakes. It is a war of "Hurry" between both sides, with the Nips pushing frantically at their utmost cracking point to mop up the East Indies and gain the double prize of (1) elimination of nearby Allied naval and airplane bases and (2) immense and urgently needed supplies of ore, oil and rubber, while America rushes its armament and shipbuilding program. Survival as a world power is the stake. A long and heavy haul lies ahead.

Injured Dog Yields Only to Boy

"Flip," a 50-pound Scotch collie dog, is getting better today at the Commonwealth Hospital for Animals and he has an 18-year-old Newton youth to thank for it all.

Suffering a broken hip in a Newton ditch, "Flip" was suspicious and fought off all who came near him until the arrival of John Engel of St. James st., who seemed to have a way with dogs.

Young Engel went right to work making friends with the animal and soon was near enough to pat his head.

Something in the youth's voice and the touch of his hand seemed to convince "Flip" that he had found a friend and he made no protest as young Engel gently lifted him out of the ice-covered ditch into which he had fallen from an embankment beside the B. & A. railroad tracks, between the Newton Corner and Newton stations.

John Engel

Flip

The dog was identified as the pet of William Hopkins, of Willard st., Newton. A veterinary advised his removal to a hospital and "Flip" was taken to the Commonwealth Hospital for Animals by his owner and young Engel.

Britain Bars Cecil Brown Radio Talks

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (INS)—Brown, Columbia Broadcasting System's representative in Singapore, has been barred by British authorities there from making further radio reports on the Malay campaign and will not be permitted to broadcast from any point on British soil, CBS announced today. The ruling will be protested "to the proper authorities," CBS said.

Announcement that the American correspondent had been barred was made over the Singapore radio by a speaker who CBS said was apparently an American reporter. The pessimistic character of Brown's reports and the effect they've had on local residents was the reason given for action.

In this announcement, CBS said, there was no question of the accuracy of Brown's broadcasts and emphasized they had been passed by the local censor.

Brown was aboard the cruiser Repulse during the Japanese air attack which destroyed both the Repulse and the battleship Prince of Wales.

ROMMEL FORCES RUN SHORT OF FUEL

Official Dispatch

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 12 (AP)—With Axis' African forces reported running short of fuel, the British Middle East command declared today it was maintaining its pressure on the retreating Germans and Italians in the El Agheila area despite bad weather.

The British said their planes "in particular carried out most effective attacks on enemy supply columns and motor transport."

In the Halfaya-Salum area on the Egyptian-Libyan frontier, where an isolated Axis garrison is defying British attacks, the British said their troops captured about 100 German and Italian prisoners yesterday.

ROMME LARMY RETREATS

They added operations against that outpost were "proceeding methodically."

The North African army of Gen. Erwin Rommel was falling back slowly from Agedabia with British mobile forces lashing at its stubbornly resisting rear guard, it was reported.

British military quarters said an order found on a German prisoner—one of 26,000 Axis troops reported captured thus far in the Libyan campaign—disclosed that Rommel's men had been directed to conserve fuel because of the difficulty of replenishing their dwindling supplies.

"Owing to the great expenditure of fuel on the eastern front the fuel situation of the Reich is extremely stringent," the order said.

BRITISH AIR BASE ATTACKED

The Italian high command announced today Axis planes had heavily attacked an advanced British airdrome at Agedabia, Libya.

(The announcement was the first indication the British had established an airdrome at Agedabia, which is more than 300 miles west of the Egyptian frontie. It would appear to indicate Axis forces had withdrawn a considerable distance from the town.

(Free French troops from Syria are enroute to Libya to reinforce the British Empire forces, the British radio reported today. The broadcast, heard by CBS, said Free French troops were well equipped, and included veterans of desert campaigns, as well as volunteers trained in Syria.)

Wake Heroes Still Get Pay

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12 (INS)—Naval headquarters in San Francisco said today that civilian workers on the islands of Guam and Wake, held prisoners by Japanese would continue to be credited with wages, and that allotments to their families arranged before the war, would be continued.

Love on Desert and Sea For Brents and Rooneys

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 12 (AP)—Romantic items from Hollywood: The boxoffice king is honeymooning at Del Monte, on the beach, while the oomph girl is honeymooning at Palm Springs, on the desert.

In trainer terms, Mickey Rooney, No. 1 attraction at the box offices, is at Del Monte with the former Ava Gardner of Wilson, N. C., to whom he was married at Ballard, near Santa Barbara, Saturday.

And Ann (Oomph) Sheridan and George Brent, married at Palm Beach, Fla., last Monday, arrived in arid Palm Springs. Ann explained:

"It rained every day while we were away, so we decided to finish our honeymoon in California."

Mr. and Mrs. Brent don't have to get back to their camera work for another week. The Rooneys are due back this week so Mickey can get ready to go to Boston for the Red Cross Jan. 22.

The 21-year-old Mickey and his 19-year-old actress sweetheart were married by the Rev. Glenn Lutz at the Ballard Presbyterian Church with only his parents, his sister and two or three friends in attendance.

15 Power Plant Men Die in Fire

SHIPSHAW, Quebec, Jan. 12 (AP)—At least 15 workmen were dead today and many more were unaccounted for in a pre-dawn inferno which trapped a sleeping construction crew in a one-story wooden barrack.

Survivors of the disaster at the construction camp which houses 2000 of 5000 workers on a $35,000,000 power development suggested that the fire was touched off intentionally—perhaps fed by gasoline.

One of the men who escaped by diving headlong through a window and fleeing barefoot across the snow said he believed 'someone set the fire and gasoline was used to spread it, because the fire spread on the floors like a rolling ball."

Besides the dead and missing, 15 others were taken to hospitals for burns, some of them serious.

Family of Five Killed By Fumes from Stove

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 12 (AP)—An entire family of five persons was found dead here in a bedroom of their home, their bodies near a gas stove.

They were Francis Walsh, 41, an odd-jobs man; his wife Martha, 36, and their three children, William, 13; Mary, 11, and Patty, 21 months. A coroner expressed belief fumes from the stove killed them.

Better Have a Look At That Fan Belt

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT, Jan. 12 (Wide World)—How long has it been since you looked at the fan belt on your car motor?

If that belt were to let go while you were on a country highway, miles from a service station, you'd be in real trouble.

On some cars the belt not only operates the fan that cools the water in the radiator, but it also keeps the generator working, operates the water pump and in some instances the fuel pump. Beyond that, however, a broken belt could twist the fan blades into uselessness and it might even whip through the radiator itself.

If your car has been driven 12,000 to 15,000 miles you would do well to inspect the belt today and have it replaced if it shows any sign of shredding. If you are planning a long trip that will take you out of touch with service stations, carry a spare. You can buy one for a dollar or less and its installation is a very simple process.

If you don't know how to put it on, your gasoline station attendant usually can show you. Ordinarily this is done by loosening the main bolt holding up the generator, which can be dropped a couple of inches to free the old belt, if it still remains behind the fan. You then bring the belt out by looping under and in front of the fan blades. This procedure is just reversed to install the new one, the generator being lifted up and tightened in place to hold the new belt taut.

There is one very important precaution: If you're going to carry a spare make absolutely certain it is the right size; an off-size belt is useless.

Train Ruins Car, Driver Injured

Joseph Burnside, 30, of Tremont st., Stoneham, was reported in good condition at Melrose Hospital today after his stalled automobile was demolished by an express train at the Franklin st. crossing in Melrose Highlands.

The victim, pulled from the wreckage by horrified spectators, later was found to have suffered only a slight brain concussion and minor injuries.

Burnside's machine skidded through the gates onto the inbound track as the Portland-to-Boston express roared down on him. The train hit the front end, tossing the motor 100 feet, but Burnside was conscious when Philip Leacroft, gate tender, reached his side.

Leacroft and William Foucher of Grove st., Melrose, an attendant at a nearby gasoline station, took Burnside to the hospital.

Fish and Game Roundup Friday

A dinner and evening of entertainment is planned by the special committee of the Massachusetts Fish and Game Ass'n for Friday evening at the Copley-Plaza Hotel to celebrate the ninth annual roundup.

A feature of the evening will be "Adventures Out of Doors," a new motion picture in natural colors photographed and edited by Martin Bovey who has shown his remarkable pictures at the last three round-ups.

Other special features of the annual round-up include bouts of skill at fly fishing for live trout and target practice in a real shooting gallery.

The fun begins at 5 p. m. Reservations should be made with the Massachusetts Fish and Game Ass'n, 20 Spruce st., Boston.

Cambridge Blackout Due to Wire Trouble

Underground cable trouble was blamed today for an impromptu blackout in the northern section of Cambridge, where lights went out in homes, stores and two hospitals.

Emergency crews of the Cambridge Gas Light Co. finally located the trouble and most of the section, including the area about Huron ave., Fresh Pond and Observatory Hill were lighted by turning on an auxiliary circuit.

telling blows against the Japanese navy.

U. S. BLASTS JAP SHIPS

In the same communique describing the enemy failures in Luzon, the War Department announced that a Japanese fleet off Davao, Mindanao Island and another collection of ships in the Celebes Sea were attacked from the air.

Strategists, however, centered their attention on the "all-out" Battle of Luzon, an operation they believed would determine the temporary fate of the Philippines.

Although the War Department said the Japs attacked MacArthur's line "with tremendous force," authoritative spokesmen agreed that the invaders will exert "even heavier pressure" upon the defenders. These observers explained that Japan's first attack served as a "feeler," designed to determine the approximate strength of MacArthur's new stand.

HEAVY ENEMY LOSSES

The War Department disclosed that MacArthur's troops "defending previously prepared positions, repulsed the attack with heavy enemy losses." "Our casualties," the communique said, "were relatively small."

On the basis of this description, observers concluded that the invaders evidently found the American-Filipino units more powerful than expected. This led to the belief that a subsequent assault will be conducted only after the Japs heavily reinforce the spearhead of their drive.

Experts believed, further, that the Japanese would continue to blast at the same positions, believed located near the border line of Pampangas Province and the Bataan Peninsula. They explained that geography of Pampangas and Bataan makes such a drive the most feasible method of crushing completely the American-Filipino resistance.

Success against MacArthur's right flank would enable the Japs to gain access to the highway along the eastern shore of Bataan, tacticians said. The highway runs the length of the peninsula, serves as a communications line between the troops and their supply units, and leads to within shouting distance of the fortifications in Manila Bay.

MacArthur's right flank, moreover, is fronted by terrain more easy to traverse than the thickly wooded mountains in which the other end of the line is believed located.

The aerial attack on Manila Bay, including the Corregidor fortress, were resumed after several days of inactivity. "No serious damage," was done the War Department stated.

In the foray of four-motored bombers, a Japanese battleship, possibly the same one that was hit ina previous attack January 5, was set aflame in Malalag Bay. The bay is approximately 30 miles south of the town of Davao and is about 75 miles from the lower tip of Mindanao Island. Despite poor visibility, the U. S. bombers also scored a direct hit on a Japanese anti-aircraft shore battery.

The War Department disclosed that six cruisers, two destroyers, eight transports and 10 smaller vessels, beside the battleship, were found in Davao Gulf. Experts believed this fleet was being held to assist Japan's drive against the Netherlands Indies.

U-BOAT FLEET GOES TO AID AXIS IN LIBYA

By LARRY ALLEN

Alexandria, Jan. 12 (AP)

German submarines are being shifted from the Atlantic to the Mediterranean in an effort to curb the devastating attacks by the British navy on Axis convoys bound for Libya, eRar Admiral Henry Bernard Rawlings said today. Three submarines were sunk in recent weeks, and probably others were destroyed.

"But the attacks are not going to stop," Rawlings added.

The admiral is commander of a British cruiser squadron in the Mediterranean, and he made his remarks in the cabin of his cruiser flagship.

The appearance of U-boats in increasing numbers in the Mediterranean constitutes "a nuisance, but it's a nuisance that can be attacked and we are doing that successfully," he declared.

Admiral Rawlings asserted the Nazi U-boat invasion of the Mediterranean had been apparent since early December probably due to three reasons:

1—Submarine activities in the Atlantic were not paying justifiable dividends.

2—The Nazis want to try to protect Axis convoys bound for Tripoli.

3—The Germans are disgusted over the failure of Italian submarines to prevent the British Navy from knocking off over 60 per cent of all convoys carrying vital supplies to Gen. Erwin Rommel's retreating Libyan army.

Rawlings said he was not alarmed by the naval situation in the Pacific. Commenting on the American fleet's activities, he asserted:

"The American fleet has yet got to do what we did at the start of the war—learn to fight—and fight under changing conditions and circumstances. Of course, the American fleet didn't get a fair start. After all there were no whistles blown but the whole situation will come around satisfactorily much quicker than the Japanese think.

"It was just a question of surprise. I am not expressing an opinion as to whether there should have been surprise."

Borneo and on the island of Celebes to the east, where the Japanese effected their landings yesterday despite a bombardment by Dutch planes which were said to have damaged two transports.

(Japanese imperial headquarters claimed the capture of Menado, a town of 12,000 at the northern tip of Celebes, but the Dutch did not acknowledge the claim.)

The communique gave no details of the fighting on either of the invaded islands beyond declaring the Dutch forces were putting up a stiff fight and acknowledging the loss of one Dutch seaplane at Tarakan.

DUTCH TO DESTROY WELLS

The Batavia radio declared, however, it had been anticipated Tarakan could not hold out long in view of an attack and that arrangements had been made to destroy installations there if it became necessary to abandon the island.

(The Japanese claimed Tarakan had surrendered.)

"The oil fields (of Tarakan) have been thoroughly mined and it may be relied upon that preparations have been made with usual Dutch thoroughness to such an extent that nothing will be left to the enemy," the broadcast said.

The Japanese invasion was launched before dawn yesterday after days of preliminary aerial reconnaissance which forewarned the Dutch.

At Tarakan, the Japanese succeeded in landing troops from a fleet of transports under the protection of warships despite a heavy bombardment by Dutch planes.

Pearl Harbor to the question uppermost in the minds of Americans:

"Where is the United States fleet?"

"I would not be frank with you if I led you to believe to expect favorable, dramatic developments of triumphant American, full scale naval engagements in the Pacific in the near future," Knox declared.

FLEET ISNT IDLE

"The elements of distance, of time, of the necessarily wide distribution of our naval forces preclude what I know you all wish me to suggest: Early, conclusive showdown with the Japanese navy. But you know that by this I do not mean to imply that the Pacific fleet is idle. It is not idle and you will hear from it again and again: when and where careful strategic consideration dictate."

He pointed out that the Navy, co-operating with British units, is helping to keep supply lines open in the north and south Atlantic and the north and south Pacific because "it is Hitler we must destroy."

U.S. Renews Plea For Irish Bases

Dublin, it was said, have been exerting so much pressure on the Eire government in personal contacts that some of their old popularity is waning.

Both the British and United States representatives were said to have insisted that nothing in the way of new proposals has been submitted formally to the Irish, but they make no secret they look wishfully at such potential bases as Berehaven, Cobh and Lough Swilly, which would help the Allies counter German intensification of the battle of the Atlantic or new moves toward West Africa.

BASES USED IN LAST WAR

The three bases were used by the British and United States fleets during the World War and were retained by Britain after Eire became a nation until the Eire-British agreement of 1938. They were given to Eire by the Chamberlain government.

The Manchester Guardian asserted that "Mr. De Valera is unmoved so far but when he reflects how much he personally owes to American aid his conscience must be troubled."

Irish sources said Prime Minister De Valera had not changed his attitude one bit since the United States entered the war.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT FACE PIMPLES

These disfiguring spots affecting the outer or surface layer of the skin often result from a temporary, minor disturbance, or from incorrect cleansing.

You can relieve the itchy, burning soreness and thereby help your skin by using an ointment whose medication stays in active contact with the pimply spots. Apply it every night and leave it on all night. It does a world of good.

For 45 years people have used Resinol Ointment to fill this need. It soothes the irritated oil ducts where many surface pimples start, and so aids her[e]. Carefully cleansing the skin [with] Resinol Soap helps to quicken the pleasing results. Its gently active lather is refreshing and it rinses easily.

Buy a jar of Resinol Ointment and cake of Resinol Soap from any druggist. For free sample, write Resinol, Dept. 1E, Baltimore, Md.

Touch Typewriting System Learned in Home Course

GIRL WHO CAN'T TYPE LOSES OUT ON JOB

HARD to get an office job—or to hold one after you've gotten it—if you can't type well. The nicest boss won't stand for erasures, crossedout words, messy copy.

Teach yourself the touch system before you go job-hunting, for only by professional methods can you turn out professional work.

Teaching yourself isn't such a task!

A simple keyboard chart shows you where to place your fingers on the keyboard. Each hand has its own special "guide keys"—A, S, D, F for the left hand; J, K, L and semi-colon for the right hand—as our picture shows.

Operating always from its guide key, each finger learns by touch to reach the other keys in its "territory." Besides "A" the little finger of the left hand has "Q" and "Z" to cover.

With practice your fingers do their job accurately, swiftly. Then, if you know simple rules for spacing copy, your work will look neat and attractive.

Our 40-page booklet, "Touch Typewriting Self-Taught," gives the helpful keyboard chart, exercises to develop speed and accuracy. Explains spacing and mechanics of typing English. Has rules for typing letters, statistics, manuscripts, radio scripts.

Send 15 cents in coins for our booklet, "Touch Typewriting Self-Taught," to Boston Evening American Home Institute, 109 West 19th st., New York, N. Y. Write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

ROMANCE

Best to Keep Promise Made to Father

By Beatrice Fairfax

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I AM 19 years of age and go out once in a while with a young man of 23. He says he loves me but doesn't earn enough money to marry. I don't love him but enjoy his company. I go out with other boys and like to meet new people.

My father has said I must not see this young man any more because he is afraid I will fall in love with him, and that would never do, considering his small pay envelope. I've promised my dad faithfully that it would never happen. I dislike very much going against my father's wishes but I enjoy the boy's company. What shall I do?

UNDECIDED.

You seem to want to eat your cake and have it too, and that is impossible. If you've given your word to your father that you won't fall in love with the young man, it seems to me you'll have to give him up, unless you can persuade your father to allow you to keep up the friendship.

Today's Food Bargains

Besides Baldwins, McIntosh and Delicious apples, a few Cortlands, Kings and Black Twigs were noticed on market counters this week. Lemon juice brings out flavor in winter apple sauce and pies—and lemons are quite reasonable. Meat prices are generally the same as last week.

| Apples: | Per lb. |
|---|---|
| Baldwins, 4 lbs. | 25c to 25c |
| McIntosh, 4 to 5 lbs | 25c |
| Delicious, 4 lbs. | 29c |
| Lemons | 5 for 15c |
| Fresh killed chicken, according to size | 29c to 35c |
| Beef Liver | 29c |
| Boneless Chuck Beef | 31c |
| Lamb Legs | 27c |

(These prices are quoted by the Mass. Dept. of Agriculture.)

Good Manners

By MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

We are planning to announce our engagement soon, and my parents would like to send the announcement to the newspapers of our city.

I am puzzled about one detail of this announcement. My fiance's parents are dead. Under this circumstance should the announcement read, "son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Blank," or should this fact be omitted? A. M. F.

The announcement should read, "son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Blank."

MRS. ROOSEVELT SAYS: Exclusive

Health Vital Need of Education

By ELEANOR ROOSEVELT
National Woman Director of Civilian Defense

NEW YORK CITY, SUNDAY—Yesterday morning, at the office of Civilian Defense, I met with some 25 people who are working largely in the mountain areas for the Save the Children Fund.

They work, as far as possible, with the existing agencies and one of their main activities is to salvage desks from schools that are being remodelled and to provide them for the smaller schools where no desks have been available in the past.

In addition, they provide shoes and clothing for children who would otherwise be out of school. They have managed to have a demonstration project in one of the mountain areas.

There, usually in the month of January, the second teacher would nearly always have to resign because not enough children were left in the school to employ two teachers.

By providing suitable shoes and clothing, the children were able to continue coming to school.

By helping to provide hot lunches, they have managed to keep that school so well filled with pupils, that three teachers have to be employed during most of the school year.

I THINK it is rarely understood in many parts of our country that great numbers of children drop out of school because of lack of proper clothing.

We take it for granted that, if we provide schools, we have done all that needs to be done. I have always been in favor of federal aid to education by grants to states which do not have the ability to provide equal opportunities for every child to obtain an education.

I have never been able to separate however, in my mind, academic education from the health of the child. This can only be good when a child is properly nourished and has adequate medical care.

In one mountain county, I am told that 70 per cent of the boys were rejected in the draft because of malnutrition. Providing adequate schools would not meet this question of building an adequate citizen to meet the needs of the community when he reaches the age of twenty-one.

OUR INTERPRETATION of education must never be so narrow that we lose sight of the fact that learning to read on an empty stomach, or with eyes that are overstrained because of lack of proper eye-glasses, is not real education.

Under such circumstances, one cannot learn much and one forgets the little one learns almost immediately, because one stops reading as soon as there is no obligation to do so

After this group of social workers left, I spent two hours with Administrator McNutt and the director of the bureau of the budget, Mr. Harold D. Smith, and various other officials. I returned to the White House just in time for lunch.

I came to New York city last night and I am having a rather lazy day visiting some of the older members of my family, whom I have not seen for some time. After my usual Sunday night broadcast, I am going to speak at a meeting this evening.

Smart Set Functions

By BETTY ALDEN

THE WEDDING of Peggy Porter and Capt. Chandler Bigelow had something which society weddings have gotten along without for a long time—a white dove fastened to the radiator cap of their limousine.

This is the first of these feathered harbingers of peace we've ever seen on a society bride's automobile . . . As a matter of fact Peggy almost had to do without it as the chauffeur had the dickens of a time finding it . . . Most anyone could have told him that doves of peace are pretty rare these days and looked upon as fifth columnists in many countries! . . .

White ribbons fluttered all over the car as it swept away from Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel, bearing the radiantly happy couple to the wedding reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Allen Porter of Beacon st. . . .

Though the wedding was a small family affair, a few intimate friends of the couple also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Storey were among those offering their best wishes to the bridal couple, who left immediately after the reception for Dayton, O., where Capt. Bigelow reports for active duty with the Air Corps . . .

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. James Mills (she was Barbara Bigelow, niece of Capt. Bigelow) came down from Ft. Devens for the ceremony . . . James, resplendent in khaki and his blonde bride in a vivid violet wool, dress and bag, with a simple black wool coat . . . Mrs. Josiah Child was another fashionable guest wearing violet . . . her wool dress and hat a nice complement to her gray kidskin jacket . . .

Olivia Ames, who sat with her mother, Mrs. Edward Bigelow, wore a modish black wool coat made with two short capes and trimmed with brass buttons . . .

Dr. Thomas Barbour, who gave the bride in marriage, joined Mrs. Barbour and their daughters, Mrs. Alfred Kidder, Julia and Louisa Barbour, for the ride over to the reception. Several years ago Peggy accompanied Dr. Barbour and his expeditioning family on a trip to South Africa to track down the flora and fauna of the Transvaal and since her return she has often given lectures and shown the movies of wild life which were made on that trip . . .

Isabel Porter, sister of the bride and maid of honor, carried a fan shaped bouquet of shaded snapdragon to blend with her lovely gown of salmon pink crepe trimmed with gold . . . Still other wedding guests were Mayor and Mrs. Maurice Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. George S. West, Harry Fessenden, the F. Wadsworth Busks, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Caue, Harry Fessenden and the F. W. A. Richardsons.

POST DEB Elizabeth "Sister" Sears and her fiance, Benjamin Gardiner, whose engagement was announced recently, sit one out in the Balinese Room at the Hotel Somerset. Sister is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Sears of Mt. Vernon st. and Ben's parents are the Robert Hallowell Gardiners of Brookline.

Listen, World!

LIFE'S BIG TEST

By Elsie Robinson

THE DOOR was half opened yet half closed—and he was afraid. That line in the ads caught me, for it is life. Always we're facing a door that's half opened and half closed and wondering which side to choose.

Long ago we began that. Began it when we were cave men, peering cautiously from the narrow crevices of our dens. Our caves were cold and we were hungry.

There before us lay the jungle. The jungle was like a great door that opened into all we needed. There was food in the jungle and warm furs and riches and a mate. But there was also danger. That was the "closed" side of the jungle door.

There were wild beasts in the jungle and hostile tribes and mysterious diseases. The jungle incited—but the jungle also repelled. Should we go in? Or should we stay out? That was the question the jungle put up to us. And a man's test lay in his answer.

Life is a door half opened, half closed. With each new day we meet the challenge afresh. Shall we go in? Shall we stay out? There's the test of the stuff that's in us.

Most of us waste years waiting for life to open its door full. But life never will. The perfect opportunity—the opportunity that carries no risk with it, no inconvenience of pain—never comes. Always the door is half shut as well as half open. Always there are as many reasons against doing a thing as there are reasons for doing it.

On the other hand, if you decide to go in, you may not be able to offer one high-proof argument in your defense. And people will boo you, and get mad at you because your courage makes their cowardice seem contemptible.

Which are you going to do—go in or stay out? Play safe or take a chance?

That's the question that faced the cave man. That's the question that is facing you, in the dark, narrow cave of yourself. The cave men that went into the jungle found plenty. But they also paid plenty for finding it.

They knew pain, and soon certain death. But they also knew the thrill and glory of adventure. And they built civilization—although that probably didn't do them much good, being dead. But, at all events, whatever there was they were in the thick of it.

Alsop-Parker Wed in Lowell

A wedding of great interest to Boston socialite members of the generation who have just become Grandmas and Grandpas, took place Saturday noon when Mrs. Allan D. Parker of Lowell was married to Mr. Francis J. O. Alsop of Boston . . . Rev. Francis Sayre of Christ Church, Cambridge, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a small luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peabody.

Mrs. Alsop's children are Mrs. Melville Chapin of Cambridge, Mrs. Lincoln Clark Jr., of Orange, N. J., and Allan D. Parker Jr. . . . Mr. Alsop is the father of Mrs. F. Lee Wendell (Camilla Alsop) of University Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, and Peter Alsop of New Orleans.

OUR DAILY CITATION: Posthumously, to Mrs. Bonita Mary Deveau, of Wilmington, who died Saturday morning in a vain attempt to save her five-year-old daughter when fire destroyed the family home. She valued her child's life more than her own. She was a real mother.

THE BUDGET submitted to Congress by President Roosevelt proposed Federal expenditures of fifty-six billion dollars during the next fiscal year.

This is the President's estimate of what it will cost to conduct all activities of government, including the war.

As much as possible of this great sum—but still a relatively small part of it—will be derived from current taxes.

The rest will be borrowed.

Consequently, the national debt will increase—probably to one hundred and ten billion dollars, according to the President.

These are astronomical figures, entirely incomprehensible to the general public.

They do not represent the total cost of the war, and Mr. Roosevelt frankly said he does not know what the total cost of the war will be.

"I cannot predict ultimate costs because I cannot predict the changing fortunes of war," he said.

"I can say only that we are determined to pay whatever price we must to preserve our way of life."

Congress will authorize the expenditures, and the people will approve.

The debts we are accumulating will very certainly burden the nation grievously for generations to come, and may very possibly postpone resumption of normal economic conditions indefinitely.

But a nation at war cannot weigh the ultimate effects of debt, and the American people as a whole are not weighing such effects.

This is not an attitude of indifference, but of recognition and acceptance of necessary and unavoidable things.

---

THOMAS JEFFERSON once said: "When we see ourselves in a situation which must be endured and gone through, it is best to make up our minds to it, meet it with firmness, and accomodate everything to it in the best way practicable. This lessens the evil; while fretting and fuming only serves to increase your own torments."

We are certainly in that sort of a situation now—a situation which must be endured and gone through.

The war in which we are now engaged takes precedence over everything else.

Whatever part of its cost we can pay now through current taxes, we must pay.

Whatever part of its cost must be charged against the future ability of the nation to pay must be so charged.

Wherefore, we must not increase our torments by ineffectual concern.

OF COURSE IT IS TO BE EXPECTED OR AT LEAST HOPED THAT THE PRESIDENT AND THE CONGRESS WILL CHANNEL WHAT IS TAXED AND WHAT IS BORROWED FOR WAR PURPOSES AS FULLY AS POSSIBLE INTO AN EFFECTIVE WAR EFFORT.

The President's budget is not as entirely satisfying in this respect as might have been desired.

Mr. Roosevelt's curtailment of non-war expenditures was much less drastic than the requirements of a successful war effort would seem to exact.

In matters of expenditure, taxation and borrowing, the President most earnestly abides by his own sound slogan that:

"Nothing short of a maximum will suffice."

But in matters of less expenditure in non-essential and deferable political enterprise, he is amazingly and disturbingly content with much less than a maximum.

Measured by what is necessary to conduct and win the war and by what the American people are willing to spend and pay to win it, the President's budget is not too big, too severe in its imposition of current taxes or too prodigal with future debts.

As the President said previously, whatever victory costs it is worth a thousand times its cost.

BUT THE REAL COST OF VICTORY SHOULD BE THE SOLE COST, AND NOT BE MADE TO INCLUDE MAINTENANCE OF A HANG-OVER AND PROFLIGATE PEACETIME POLITICAL REGIME IN THE STYLE TO WHICH IT WAS TOO LONG ACCUSTOMED.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: Best record for happy marriages is in those cases when the wife is from three to five years older than her husband. Women marrying younger men once worried about aging more rapidly than their husbands. Not any more. Most any intelligent woman can now make herself look from 10 to 15 years younger . . . What became of Mike Riley and Ed Farley, the fellows who wrote "The Music Goes Round and Round"? . . . An Albany, N. BABY EXPERT: During the period the blessed event in his family was imminent Joe Di Maggio took an expectant father's course. He became so interested in this that after the blessed event he took a course in infant care. Mr. Di Maggio is extremely proud of his knowledge as to baby raising and invites people to the house just to be able to show them how cleverly he holds the baby. Joe is also adept at changing things. Mrs. Di Maggio has viewed this situation with patience, but the other night she said to Joe, with a slight touch of sarcasm: "Is YOUR baby sleeping all right."

ADDED DETAILS: Our pup still enjoys singing to a piano accompaniment and apparently thinks he has a wonderful voice. His voice has changed. He is a basso now. His favorite tune is "Many Brave Hearts Lie Asleep in the Deep" . . . Melba, operatic star, had Toast Melba and Peach Melba named after her. All Lillian Russell had named after her was a now forgotten cigar. Which brings to mind who was Tom Collins, for whom the popular drink was named? And O'Brien potatoes—what O'Brien is honored in this instance? Could it be they are named after the famous San Jose, Cal., restaurant?

SIDELIGHTS: News photos of weddings reveal that practically all brides on leaving the church wear a smile of triumph. Sally Rand, the fan dancer, was no exception. On leaving the church, Sally featured a very broad "Well, I Got My Man" smile . . . "This war will nullify the tendency of Americans to overrate themselves. They think one American is the equivalent of 10 Japanese," states one Dr. Robert N. McMurry of Central Y. M. C. A. College. The good doctor should wait until the war is over before popping off. It may be the Americans after the war will still think one American is the equivalent of 10 Japanese. And, what's more important, the Japs may think so, too.

GENE TIERNEY HITS SUCCESS PEAK

By Dorothy Kilgallen

NEW YORK, Jan. 12—I think one of the most interesting phases of modern life, aside from current history and world affairs, is Gene Tierney. The first astonishing thing about her is that a writer like myself can put down "Gene Tierney" and no further identification and be sure that you know who she is (probably, indeed, have a very good mental picture of her) just as if I had said "Cordell Hull" or "Winston Churchill."

I view her not as a new and distant phenomenon, but as a once familiar figure who has become a distant phenomenon. You know the way you would feel if the girl who lived down the block and had three or four beaux suddenly turned up on the local movie house screen as one of the all time glamour girls of all time, in an atmosphere strongly suggestive of incense, and the beat-beat-beat of the Hollywood publicity tom toms.

JOAN BENNETT

THE FIRST TIME I ever saw Gene I was watching George Abbott direct a scene from a play called "Mrs. O'Brien Entertains," and she was going through a scene with four or five other actors. I recall thinking she had a piquant profile. That was all. No electric shock. No flash of discovery.

The second time I saw her she was sitting at a corner table downstairs at 21, surrounded by George Jean Nathan and Richard Watts, Jr. She had rather bright brown hair and lovely peachbloom skin, and seemed alert and pleasant. No one ever spoke of her in hushed tones or said, "Look, there she goes!" They were doing that to Brenda Frazier, that year.

That season, Gene couldn't hold a candle to Brenda Frazier.

THEN SHE PLAYED an ingenue in "The Male Animal." She wore a sweater and bobby socks, and she got a nice set of reviews, as I recall, although any resemblance between her and Eleanora Duse was purely coincidental.

And then she went to Hollywood.

The incense started burning. You knew she was going to discard the flat-heels-and-cardigan type as soon as they started photographing her upside down, you know the way they do, with hair streaming in a beautiful ripple and whatever she has on slipping off the left shoulder. One thing about Hollywood, they not only know sex appeal when they see it out there, but they know what to do with it. It's not an intangible quality to them; they set it up and photograph it as if it were a still life. A couple of dead ducks and a bowl of apples.

THE ANSWER is that Gene Tierney is now in every picture coming out of the Hollywood factories, or so it seems. The other night I felt like seeing a movie and I picked up the paper to read the advertisements, and there was nothing playing anywhere in the neighborhood but Gene Tierney pictures. And where she wasn't playing—where Gary Cooper or Garbo or Joan Bennett was playing—the ad said: "Coming Fri. and Sat.—Gene Tierney."

That is why I think her case history is so fascinating. Consider the elements: She came from Broadway, where she had played a couple of minor roles. She appeared in the pictures "The Return of Frank James," "Hudson Bay," "Belle Starr," "Sundown" and "The Shanghai Gesture," which—with the possible exception of "Sundown"—is as good a list as you could compile of the worst pictures of the year.

If Judith Anderson or Ethel Barrymore or Katharine Cornell or any other actress of recognized high talent appeared in that many bad pictures in one year, her movie career would be finished.

But Gene's is just beginning. Despite the fact that even her best friend has never said she was a great actress, she has had her picture on the cover of the magazine they all want their picture on, and she has received billing over Walter Huston, who was one of the great actors of the American stage before she was born. In her next picture, she will be leading woman for Tyrone Power. In the one after that, Heaven only knows.

SO I CONSIDER Gene the triumph of Sex Appeal over everything else. I consider her the answer to those questions eternally proposed in girls' dormitories, to wit: "Which would you rather have, sex appeal or something-or-other?"—the something or other being variously brains, talent, beauty or a kind heart. It has always been my contention that the smart girl's answer to that should be a prompt "Sex appeal!" and Gene's case is certainly Grade A proof.

BOSTON after DARK

By GEORGE HOLLAND

MONDAY MORNING MUSINGS: The Boston society girl who has occupied the limelight more completely than any of her Junior League sister's this winter is the ethereal Eleanor Frothingham . . . Her professional singing debut at the Balinese Room won her justifiable praise . . . Vogue spreads her loveliness over two full pages this month . . . And by the distance of the Latin Quarter to the Somerset, and through unfortunate timing of two late Saturday dates, Eleanor missed a possible ingenue assignment in a new Broadway musical comedy.

CAREERS IN THE THEATER sometimes hang on such hit-or-miss incidents as a chance meeting in a public place . . . Miss Frothingham, whose friends call her "Sister," happened to be in the Ritz bar Saturday . . . Alexander Smallens, the famous conductor now batoning Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," and John Wildberg, co-producer of the same show, were tippling modestly at an adjacent table . . . These gentlemen were struck by the Boston girl's beauty . . . A mutual friend introduced her to Wildberg, but Mr. Smallens had departed for the theater . . . When Mr. Wildberg was informed that the Frothingham child had a bona-fide talent, that she could sell a song with the aplomb of an Ethel Merman, he became more than mildly interested

THE REASON WAS—AND IS—THAT the next venture of the John Wildberg-Cheryl Crawford producing duo is to be a musical comedy . . . Their decks will be cleared for action after "Porgy and Bess" (with the startling Avon Long promising to be a new New York sensation), and a Marc Connelly play called "Flowers of Virtue" are unveiled in Manhattan this month.

THEN, MISS CRAWFORD and Mr. Wildberg will get busy with their musical . . . Now if there is one artistic shortage that even priorities can't alleviate it is the shortage of competent musical comedy girls. There hasn't been a new Marilyn Miller, for instance, even yet . . . And Jessie Matthews' tragic, sudden illness has seen an unsung "unknown" by name of Evelen Wycoff abruptly elevated to the leading feminine role of "The Lady Comes Across."

MR. WILDBERG IS AWARE of the scarcity of talented leading women for musical comedies . . . Hardly had he met Miss Frothingham than he was bustling with an idea of having an immediate audition . . . The Latin Quarter, he thought, would be a perfect setting for this display of Miss Frothingham's talents . . . Then the old bugaboo of an artiste's separation from her arrangements and an accompanist sprung up . . . The boys who have been playing the very tricky arrangements Eleanor has been using during her Balinese Room engagement were working Saturday night—at the Balinese Room . . . The Boston post-deb also had a date . . . The chance frittered away, Mr. Wildberg being busy and Eleanor being somewhat at a loss to break down the cloying obstacles and that was that . . .

MUSICAL COMEDY GIRLS still are scarce . . . New York isn't far away, and an audition can be arranged . . . But, somehow, catching a producer away from his New York routine gives an auditioning prospect a better chance . . . Eleanor would have been on her home grounds, sort of, if the hearing could have been arranged . . . yet the Boston girl was quite right in trying to assure herself proper and practiced accompaniment.

COINCIDENTALLY enough, a similar version to going on a stage without perfect accompaniment is all that kept Avon Long from being a part of the Latin Quarter's show this week . . . The dusky young entertainer who plays "Sportin' Life" in "Porgy and Bess" so powerfully that he is being hailed in some quarters as the greatest colored entertainer "since Bill Robinson," was ready to double at the Quarter this week . . . But a new show was being routined Sunday afternoon when Mr. Long and his manager appeared . . . The customary confusion prevailed, and the singing-dancing star of "Porgy and Bess" shook his head . . . "Those boys are having trouble enough without fussin' aroun' with me."

SMART COMEDY ROLE FOR LOMBARD

By Louella O. Parsons

Gracie Allen

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 12—Hal Wallis' enthusiasm over "Now, Voyager" doesn't sound as if he and Warners are saying adieu. Neither does Jack Warner's conversation, in which he talks of Hal's future with the company. Contracts are actually being drawn for Wallis to remain at his alma mater. "Now, Voyager" has rated Hal's enthusiasm and Norma Shearer's interest. It is by Olive Higgins Prouty, author of the never-to-be-forgotten "Stella Dallas." Norma is free after she finishes "Love Me Not" for M-G-M—or "Cardboard Lover," if you prefer. She makes no secret that she likes the Warner studio. She once made a picture there. At any rate, I'll be surprised if she doesn't sign with Warners to star in this personally supervised Wallis epic

CAROLE LOMBARD was huddling with Al Hall about her role in "He Kissed the Bride" practically with her suitcase in hand. Mrs. C. Gable wanted to get everything settled before she left for Indianapolis Saturday to sell defense bonds in her home state, Indiana. Melvyn Douglas draws the male lead opposite her, so this looks like another smart, sophisticated comedy with the Hall touch.

THINK OF IT—Marcia Mae Jones is engaged to be married! Her engagement has just been announced to Bob Schick, electrical technician. When I was told of the engagement, I said, "It isn't possible! Why only yesterday Marcia Mae had curls down her back and was playing little girl parts." Marcia is now 18 and has herself a job with Monogram Pictures.

MADELEINE CARROLL has been a sick girl and very nervous, although little has been said about it. Now the doctor orders a rest for her, so she will not go into "Forest Ranger" after all, and Paulette Goddard, who was to have played the siren in the same picture, steps into Madeleine's role of the "High Sassiety" with Fred MacMurray. This necessitates finding someone to step into the Goddard part

RITA HAYWORTH, who really looks tired and has lost a lot of weight, expects to take a six weeks' vacation in Florida. I was talking to her husband, Ed Judson, who says that when she finishes "My Gal Sal" she will take a "technical suspension," if she isn't given a six weeks rest. "You know," he said, "you created that term. Rita won't want to quarrel with her studio so I am suggesting that she just take time out to get herself completely rested." So many stars are weary these days because they have to get up while it is still dark to check in at the studios an hour earlier

SNAPSHOTS of Hollywood collected at random: Ann Sothern a daily visitor at Bob Sterling's bedside. He just had his tonsils yanked; Gracie Allen has the flu and feels terrible; Ann Sheridan and George Brent won't return until Wednesday. Lots of wedding presents await their return at Ann's house; Baby Dumpling (Larry Simms) visits Warners on a "Gay Sisters" loan out his first time away from Columbia; Jawn Barrymore received a cordial reply to a wire he sent Winston Churchill praising his speech. They are old friends; Greta Garbo and Gaylord Hauser walking along Wilshire and ducking in doorways whenever anyone passed them; Mickey Rooney was given a stag party the other night by some of the M-G-M big shots, including Spencer Tracy; Lillian Hellman is expected in Hollywood to write the script on her play, "Watch On the Rhine," for Herman Schumlin at Warners. That's all for today. See you tomorrow.

"I mind mama, that's how she got my sister married off!"

RIO-CASINO CONTINUES MELODRAMA 'ADRIFT IN NEW YORK'

Lionel Hampton at Bermuda Terrace

By SAM BERENSON

Sumptuous and lavish describes the new Latin Quarter revue this week which brings the famed Chandra Kaly Dancers to town. Oriental terpsichore is the forte of this group and they make a thrillingly beautiful spectacle. Don Richards remains as master of ceremonies. Maxellos, Carole and Sherod and songbird Helen Standish make initial appearances at Lou Walters' club, Anthony Bruno's Orchestra and the Rhumbaliers for continuous music.

Held over at the Rio-Casino is that terrific melodrama of big-city life, "Adrift in New York," as sensational a show-click as our town has witnessed in many a day. Which marks, indeedy, the Casino as a major calling spot for the week. For not only is this a grand revue treat, but set in the swanky atmosphere of the Rio a further charm is added. Those toe-tempting rhythms of the George Harris band, plus "The Mayor of Little Old New York," Harry Spear.

One of the brightest attractions of the Rialto season is the current show-stopping of Baby Rose Marie over at the smart Club Mayfair . . . a tremendous hand does Baby Rose draw down on each appearance . . . as well she might, for here is a truly exceptional personality . . . who, in our opinion, would be equally able and charming set against the background of musical comedy . . . Manager Jack Chan, of Ruby Foo's, reports brisk business.

Since it is axiomatic that a cafe reflects the personality of its owner, it is easy to understand how Izzy Ort's Grill and El Tropico Room have become such enjoyable rendezvous—because owner Izzy Ort is always contriving new, interesting entertainment and the atmosphere of enjoyment and friendliness he has created, always remains the same. The current entertainment features The Durantes, "Snake Hips" Davis, Billy and Anne St. George, and Leroy the Great.

Regie White, whose contribution to the contemporary arts is a tassel-tossing routine that leaves the patrons limp on the floor, is the swirling attraction of the Crawford House's new show for this week. A lovely lady, a yeahman routine. Other spotlight bowers in a gay revue: Vera Lamont, York & Tracy, Lionel Murray, Marya Breen. A briskly produced offering jammed with sparkle and allure.

Marion Frances and Billy Payne continue to draw much applause with their singing at the Cocoanut Grove. Billy has appeared here going on nine years and holds all records for staying in one place that long. The show this week is one of the best of the season and features the top in entertainment . . . Joe Rubin's Dance School getting nice comment.

Harry Sher, of the Silver Dollar has announced a gala celebration in February commemorating the seventh anniversary of the new Silver Dollar. This place has been a gathering spot for seeks of conviviality and fun and in the ensuing years, the name has spread far and wide and today it is one of the most interesting cafes. Special augmented revues and other features will characterize the anniversary period. Incidently, Billy Stone, has been master of ceremonies for five years.

Glamorous doings are afoot this week at the Grill Room of the Hotel Essex . . . it's speed and beauty blending into a fast-paced offering that rates with the best that this gay-spot has presented this season . . . it's grand calling all-around, for the floor-show is an eye-opener and the swingy music served up here-at is a treat for restless feet . . . you'll enjoy your door-tapping this week at the Essex' Grill Room . . . Dorgan's Old Harbor House, where the Bassett Walsh rhythm and alluring atmosphere provide slick calling, pops up with another likeable floor attraction for the week . . That fast entertainment pace continues at Ribby's Allston Cafe . . a bilarious brand of floor antics always on tap

Headlined in all of the leading European capitols in pre-war days and forced to flee his native land of Holland from Nazi oppression, Walter Behr, small of stature and chock full of that effervescent continental personality, has already won a host of friends in his short stay at the Beachcomber. Originally scheduled for a two weeks' appearance he is now entering the third week . . . floor shows at 7:30 p. m. and 11:30 p. m.

Recommended calling is the Bermuda Terrace of the Hotel Brunswick . . . for here-at is that rhythm man, Lionel Hampton, currently serving up the most captivating music in our village . . . a starry aggregation, this Hampton band . . . and all credit to the Brunswick for giving tune lovers the opportunity of bending an ear to such swing . . . Boraschis No. 1 for Italian dishes.

Up at the popular Lawrence Hofbrau this week the curtain lifts on another of those brilliant productions which add brightly to the showmanship of able Joe Waganbach . . . here's big-time entertainment, polished and varied in a way that should mark a banner week for this likeable oasis . . . Gay and sparkling entertainment is featured at the Spotlite at Essex and Harrison ave.

Still another week for that topflight swing which is the alluring attraction out North Easton way. A hand-clasp to Cappy's for continuing the date of music-master Mal Hallett, whose band comes up with as solid a bit of jive as your dancing feet could desire, with the spotlight on the Hallett tune-spinning.

Steuben's Appeals To Smart Stay-Up Set

That top-flight island atmosphere down at the delightful Cave continues to set this oasis up as one of the top-notch calling places of our village . . . It's sparkling entertainment in the modern manner where rhythm, starry talent and tasty food earn this parlor underlining on your memo pad . . . brightly styled for your pleasure . . . Steuben's Vienna Room holds its smart appeal for the stay-up set.

'Oh You Baby' Revue Wows Tic-Toc Fans

It's the "Oh You Baby" revue that'll be wowing the customers down at the Tic-Toc this fortnight. A wealth of gals and comedians makes this outstanding among after-dusk doings smoothing styled throughout.

Next Saturday and Sunday Louis Armstrong brings his band and trumpet—with matinees as well—for a two-night stand.

Blinstrub's Presents Gay New Floor Show

Blinstrub's Village makes merry the night out South Boston way, where a sparkling new floor show opens the week with one of Blinstrub's very gayest. Action a-plenty sizzles throughout this attractive production. A brand of beauty and variety that shape this into a bright Manhattan offering. Boyd Heathen's able emceeing, along with the Peter Bodge music.

"I wuz thinkin'...."

by Izzy Ort

Say! I ain't got over it yet! I mean the fun I had wid Bennie Leonard, the old champion, who wuz in my Grill the other evenin for laffs an' everythin'. We had more fun than ten burly comics wid a carload of custard pies talkin' over ole times when me an' him wuz well acquainted in little, ole New York! He gotta great boot outa my Grill an' El Tropico Room, too!

Did I tell ya about the fat guy what comes inta my Grill? Well, the navy's puttin' him in a drydock tomorrer ta see if he'll float an' if he does, they're goin' ta mount a three inch gun on his chest an' use him ta patrol Boston Harbor! That's wat I call a patriot!

Well—this week I'm demonstratin' why they call me the "Ziegfeld of Essex Street" on the raised stage in my Grill. I've got Billy an' Anne St. George, direct from the Roxy (they went in ta see the show!), Leroy the Great, a magician, the Durants, an' incidently, young Durant is leavin' here for the air force; "Snake Hips" Davis an' a host of singers an' dancers—so many I can't even count 'em on pay day! I don't un'nerstand what's keepin' me from producin' a Broadway show!

Big Bonus for Tips On News This Week

Here's a chance for amateur news hawks to win substantial prizes in addition to the $25 paid weekly by the Record-American-Sunday Advertiser for news tips.

For this week, these papers will not only continue their regular news tip contest, but in conjunction with the Paramount and Fenway theaters additional awards totaling $50 for best news tips, together with 100 pairs of tickets for those theaters, will be awarded.

In the picture, "Confirm or Deny," which opens at the two theaters Thursday, Don Ameche plays the part of an American correspondent in London during the Nazi bombing, with the lovely Joan Bennett acting as his teletype operator. Whenever he encounters a piece of news, Ameche immediately flashes it to his readers.

Here's an opportunity for you to do what Don Ameche would do under similar circumstances. When you see something happen that you realize is news, hurry to the nearest telephone, call Liberty 4000 and ask for the "News Tip Editor." Give him the tip on the news.

A total of $75 will be paid out for the best news tips, together with 100 pairs of tickets for "Confirm or Deny" at the Paramount and Fenway theaters, in which also appear Roddy McDowall, John Loder, Raymond Walburn, Arthur Shields and Eric Blore.

Get started today. Telephone your news tips to the "News Tip Editor," LIBerty 4000.

PRICE CEILING SPURS BUYING OF RETREADS

trator Henderson has ruled as fair prices for recapping or retreading of passenger car tires. The schedule follows:

| TIRE SIZE | MAXIMUM CHARGE 1st grade | 2d grade |
|---|---|---|
| 6.00-16 | $7.50 | $6.45 |
| 6.25-16 | 8.25 | 7.10 |
| 6.50-16 | 8.70 | 7.50 |
| 7.00-16 | 10.35 | 8.95 |
| 5.25-17 | 6.55 | 5.55 |
| 5.50-17 | 7.10 | 6.05 |

A basic charge of $1.50 for tire carcasses is added to the above renewing charge to determine the maximum price permitted when this type tire is sold by a dealer. The schedule explains a "basic tire carcass" is a used tire retaining a maximum of 1-16th of an inch of the original tread.

Retreading is defined as the process of reconditioning a tire where all the original tread rubber is removed down to the fabric and new rubber vulcanized to tread surface and tire walls.

Full capping is defined as application of new rubber to the tread surface and shoulders, while top capping is defined as application of new rubber to the tread surface only after buffing off the old tread.

Under provisions of the order all establishments engaged in processing the tires, or selling them, must post prominently in shops or stores a list of maximum prices.

There'll Be Soldiers To Play New Organs

CAMP EDWARDS, Jan. 12—Soldier organ players are to get music lessons, it was revealed here today by YD chaplains who have found it difficult to get accomplished organists to play the newly installed electric organs at the cantonments' 13 chapels.

Representatives of a Boston music firm will begin instruction classes here tomorrow night.

Nazis Close Catholic Schools in Austria

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—The British radio said last night the Germans have ordered the closing of all Catholic schools in Austria.

To protestations from parents, the BBC said, the Germans replied that "the national interests of Germany come before any religious requirements." The broadcast was heard here by NBC and CBS.

Nazis Press Petain To Break With U. S.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—Advices reaching the Associated Press from usually reliable sources abroad said the Germans were reported putting heavy pressure on French Marshal Petain to break relations with the United States immediately.

This report was said to have come from a competent observer who has just left Vichy and who explained that the Germans hoped thereby to overcome Vichy's resistance to Nazi plans for France in the "new order."

One of the danger spots in Vichy-Berlin relations, strained by increasing German pressure on the Marshal and his unyielding resistance, was said to be France's continued good relations with the United States.

Growing tension among the French people themselves is said to be the core of the difficulty rather than the attitude of the leaders in either capital.

Renee's 'Golden Burlesquers' Proving Big Hit at Globe

Bernardolls in New Dances

Renee, of the red-gold hair and the impish personality, and her "Golden Burlesquers" are proving a s. r. o. attraction at the Globe, where the daring Renee is a particular favorite.

Other charmers in the company of 65 are Toni Mitchell, mildly described as that "teaser of teasers"; Betty Coette and Gertie Beck. The 30 dancing Bernardolls have a dozen new dance capers for the new show.

A plentiful sprinkling of comedy seasons the revue, with I. B. Hamp, Charles Harris, Larry Norman and Cecil Alexander the ringleaders of the merriment.

An added attraction is the well-known Hermine troupe of midgets, which includes gill-sized acrobats, apache dancers, perch and trapeze artists, clowns, jugglers and, last but not least, Tinyteas herself.

Others in the company are the vaudeville headliners, Dusty Fletcher, Harlem's popular comic; Susaye Brown, Jim Basquette, the Ballstores, Spanish dance team.

"Sarari," with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Madeleine Carroll, and "Quick Millions," another in the Jones Family series, are the film features.

Stars Met in High School

Anne Brown, who plays "Bess," and Avon Long, who plays "Sportin' Life," in George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," in its third and final at the Shubert, were once high school stars together.

That was back in Baltimore, where they took all the singing honors at the Frederick Douglas High School and were awarded special medals.

"That medal we both got was something very particular," Avon explained. "We were supposed never to part with it. I don't imagine Anne ever did. But I just had to, one time.

"After I had paid 85 cents to a sailor for a place to stow away in a boat going to Philadelphia, I didn't have much left.

"I was lucky, though, to get myself a job about as soon as I got to that town. But I didn't have enough money to get out in the suburbs to the job. Well, I hated to do it—but I pawned it for a dollar. I was really pretty miserable until I got it back, too."

Sherry Britton Featured In New Old Howard Revue

Many of burlesque's best-known performers head the cast of "New Year Babies," the new revue now being presented on the historic Old Howard stage.

Hub burlesque fans are particularly partial to Sherry Britton, the brunette bombshell; June St. Clair, streamlined blonde; Marion Wakefield, direct from the Broadway nightspots, and a newcomer engagingly named Marcellita.

For fun, there are Hank Henry, Bob Alda, Art Gardner and Charles Robinson. John Fogarty, Irish-American tenor, is booked to sing some of yesterday's and today's favorites. The Six Christianas, internationally famous for their sensational acrobatics; Lolita and Martinez, rhumba dancers, and the Three Cards, teeterboard experts, are the other featured performers.

Then there are the Darling Trio, Ruth Romley, Johnny Cook and Billy Crooks, as well as the 30 chorus cuties who sing and dance.

On the screen are "Sea Wolf," starring Edward G. Robinson and "Charter Pilot," co-starring Lloyd Nolan and Lynn Bari.

"Boston After Dark," by George Holland, appears every day in the Boston American.

SHUBERT—"PORGY AND BESS," Cheryl Crawford's superb revival of the late George Gershwin's opera based on the stage success, "Porgy," by DuBose and Dorothy Hayward. Anne Brown and Todd Duncan again are seen in the title roles. Others portraying roles they created are Ruby Elzy, Georgette Harvey, Warren Coleman, Edward Matthews and J. Rosamond Johnson. Avon Long, a newcomer, replaces the late John Bubbles of Buck and Bubbles, as Sportin' Life. Harriet Jackson, also new to the company, enacts the role Clara. Alexander Smallens, the original musical director, conducts. Third and final week.

WILBUR—"MY SISTER EILEEN," Max Gordon's third company of the Jerome Fields-Joseph Chrodorov comedy, which is still playing to capacity houses on Broadway and on the road. The play is about two nice girls from the Middle West who come to Greenwich Village, seeking careers, and their strange and amusing experiences. The play is based on Ruth McKenney's human interest stories in the New Yorker.

Jan. 19

COLONIAL—"HEDDA GABLER," Luther Greene's revival of the Ibsen class starring Greece's foremost actress, Katina Paxinou, in her American debut in English. The distinguished supporting cast includes Ralph Forbes, Karen Morley, Cecil Humphreys, Margaret Wycherly, Henry Daniell and Octavia Kenmore. Ethel Borden and Cass Canfield did the modern adaptation. The setting was designed by Paul Morrison. One week only.

Feb. 2

SHUBERT—"THE STUDENT PRINCE," the popular operetta, began a revival tour here on Sept. 29, is returning for what the Messrs. Shubert announce as "a farewell tour" of two weeks. Lloyd Harris has joined the company as Dr. Engel meanwhile, as has James Donnelly, who replaces William Kent as Lutz. Barbara Scully still sings Kathie, Robert Davis is seen in the title role. Others are Delmar Poppen, Nina Varela, Joanne Tree, Jay Fresson, Alex Alexander and William Castle.

'Hedda Gabler' Here For One Week Only

Tickets are now on sale at the Colonial Theater box office for Luther Greene's revival of Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler," which opens a single week's engagement at that theater next Monday evening.

Saul Kaplan, house manager, reports an average of several hundred mail orders daily for the past four days as evidence of the unusual interest in Katina Paxinou, famous Greek actress, who makes her American debut in English in "Hedda."

LOOK FOR NEWS in prints . . . that'll make them more fun to wear, and prettier, and more exciting! Look for something like this adorable little number on the left, printed with gay tam o'shanters, the youngest kind of print . . . even to its simple round neckline and the ruched pushed-up sleeves and front fullness through an inverted pleat. Right, the more strictly "pretty" type, a jersey of acetate rayon whose splashy flowers are massed to band the shoulders and sleeves, and repeated in an enamelled pin at the V neck.—ANNICE BRINK.

ACCESSORY AIDS HAT PLAY DOUBLE ROLE

By BETTINA BEDWELL

THE LATEST brain child of John Frederics, famed milliners, is, as I have mentioned before, the hat with the accessory details in one. They attach drapy scarves to wide-brimmed hats, said scarves being also a cape, a belt, or gloves as well as side-curtains for the head.

Miss Dulin has sketched one of these accessory hats for your information. It's a wide and floppy felt hat in a deep gold color, and the drapery is made of very sheer yellow jersey, which is attached under the brim and ends in shirred mousquetaire cuffs that cover the forearms and are in the nature of skeleton gloves. This is a very charming way to eke out a short sleeved dress when you feel that way. The mousquetaire part doesn't have to be worn over the arms unless you want it that way.

FOOD

NEWS FOR MODERN WOMEN

By Martha Lee

A COTTAGE ROLL is a meat cut often served by the thrifty homemaker. It is a smoked and cured, boneless roll which weighs from three to five pounds and is made from the Boston butt. Prepare it well and you'll have a dish welcomed at every meal and one that will also highlight a buffet supper.

The cottage roll may be sliced and pan-broiled or baked like a ham.

To pan-broil, slice the cottage roll about one-fourth inch thick, brown on both sides and serve piping hot. With hot potato salad it is a delicious lunch or dinner dish.

HOT POTATO SALAD

6 hard-cooked eggs, diced
½ cup crumbled roquefort cheese
2 tbsp. grated onion
2 cups cooked potato cubes
Salt to taste
½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce
4 tbsp. salad dressing
4 stuffed olives, sliced
4 strips bacon, diced

Combine eggs, cheese, onion and potatoes; sprinkle with salt, Worcestershire sauce and salad dressing; toss lightly. Place in greased baking dish; arrange olives and bacon over top. Bake in hot oven (400 deg. F.) 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

BAKED COTTAGE ROLL

To bake the cottage roll, place it on a rack in an open roasting pan. Insert the meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part. Roast, uncovered, in a moderate oven (300 deg. F.) until the meat thermometer registers done for smoked pork. If a meat thermometer is not available, allow 35 minutes per pound for roasting. About 30 minutes before the end of the cooking period spread the surface with a brown sugar glaze and allow to brown. The glaze is made as follows:

Mix to a smooth paste ¼ cup brown sugar, 1½ tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon of vinegar and 1 tablespoon water.

ESCALLOPED CORN

¼ cup corn meal
1½ tsp. salt
3 tbsp. brown sugar
3 tbsp. butter
¾ cup milk, scalded
1 egg, well beaten
4 cups canned corn
¼ minced pimiento
12 slices broiled bacon

Combine corn meal, salt and brown sugar. Add butter to milk and add slowly to corn meal, mixing well; add egg, corn and pimiento; turn into greased casserole and bake in moderately slow oven (325 deg. F.) about 1 hour, or until browned. Stir frequently during first 20 minutes of baking to prevent meal from settling. Serve hot with bacon. Makes 6 servings.

ESCALLOPED POTATOES

6 medium-sized potatoes
Salt and pepper
Flour
3 tsp. butter
3 cups rich milk

Pare potatoes and slice thin; place ½ in buttered baking dish, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and dredge with flour. Repeat, add butter to hot milk and pour over potatoes. Bake, covered, in moderately hot oven (375 deg. F.) for ½ hour, then uncover and bake 10 to 15 minutes longer, or until a delicately browned crust has formed on top. If milk boils over, uncover and bake at lower temperature (350 deg. F.). One tablespoon chopped onion may be added to milk for flavor. Makes about 6 servings.

A COTTAGE ROLL, baked or pan-broiled, is always a treat.

LEMON GELATIN

2 tbsp. gelatin
2 cups cold water
1 cup boiling water
1 cup sugar
Dash of salt
½ tsp. grated lemon rind
¾ cup lemon juice

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup cold water 5 minutes; add hot water, stirring until dissolved; stir in sugar, salt, lemon rind and juice, and remaining 1¾ cups cold water; pour into mold and chill until firm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

COURTESY TOWARD ESCORT

The well-bred young woman realizes that she has a social obligation toward her escort and doesn't become so interested in watching others, new arrivals, etc., that she neglects her escort.

Beauty

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL—Today's frivolous bonnets put emphasis on eye beauty quite as much as this period number Lucille Ball wears in a current picture . . . and Arline Gould tells of an eye kit that will guard and renew the beauty of tired eyes.

NEW EYE KIT IN USE AT FAMED MEDICAL CLINIC

By ARLINE GOULD

IF YOU ARE JUST now beginning to realize that the two extra hours a day of clerical work for which you've volunteered in the name of Defense . . . or the First Aid course three times a week . . . or any one of the various courses you're attending faithfully . . . are taking rather more out of you than you expected . . . take steps to guard your beauty!

No one would grudge giving to the government the cause for an extra line or two around the eyes, or a frown between the eyebrows . . . but it isn't necessary at all to pay a penalty in lost good looks . . . for you can give yourself an eye treatment that'll make up for all the strain . . . and show you a way to keep youthful around the eyes for a longer time than you perhaps have a real right to expect!

You'll probably discover . . . if no one's ever said many sweet words about your pretty eyes . . . that all they need is a bit of resting, clarifying, and smoothing of the tissues around them, to become remarkably worth while looking into!

You'll start off with that essential to any girl who is pushing twenty-five . . . an eye cream. And the one to which we refer is a famous one . . . golden, light, richly emollient and melty. Possibly you may find this enough. But we rather think you'll want to do a really remarkable job for future beauty security as well as today's . . . so acquire the complete eye kit, at very little extra cost.

This is unusual because nowhere else will you find an eye-area astringent like the one included . . . and both the herbal eye packs and the eye lotion are in current use at the Mayo clinic . . . so you can see what a really well-planned and fine kit it is. You'll find the eye astringent invaluable to help ease away crepiness of the lids and under the eyes, in addition to the smoothing effect of the cream. And of course the whole treatment itself is marvelous for banishing shadows!

To learn about this unusual eye cream and kit, phone Arline Gould, LIBerty 4000, except the week-end, or write, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Sweet Woman Wore Out Tire In Parking

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

Distributed by International News Service

We looked over our tires yesterday and discovered the sweet woman had worn out our spare parking.

It is on the rear of the car and she rubbed it up against other cars, fire plugs and lamp posts.

So she got thirty thousand miles of bruises and abrasions out of the spare.

By next summer we will be out of rubber and running on our over-size hubs.

P. S. I am resuming my bicycle riding exactly where I fell off in 1903.

ELSIE ROBINSON writes the woman's viewpoint, discusses everyday affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

LOTHAR FACES BONECRUSHER TONIGHT AT ARENA

By Doc Splevin—

JAN. 12—IT'S A SELLOUT AND IT LOOKS LIKE A REAL BATTLE. FOR TWO YEARS BONECRUSHER HAS LOOKED LIKE OUR NEXT CHAMP. LOTHAR'S SINGLE FIGHT SHOWED HIM TO BE A TORNADO. THE WINNER? YOUR GUESS IS AS GOOD AS MINE. YOU CAN PREPARE FOR AN UNUSUALLY ... SEE AN UNUSUALLY ... RIGHT!

BONECRUSHER

WHAT YOU SO JITTERY ABOUT, BONECRUSHER?

I DON'T FEEL LIKE FIGHTIN'—I'M NOIVOUS—

WHERE'S LOTHAR?

AIN'T SHOWED UP YET, SHARPY.

TEN MINUTES 'TIL RING TIME AND HE AIN'T SHOWED UP? COME ON, BOYS. WE'LL GET HIM!

Y-YES... THANKS, BILL—

...BUT WHERE IS X-9? I SAW HIM HERE A MOMENT AGO!

YOU SAID CAPTAIN MAGNET TOOK IT ON THE LAM, HONEY. X-9 WENT RIGHT AFTER HIM!

NOW I REMEMBER... CAPTAIN MAGNET GAVE ME THE ADDRESS OF THE SABOTAGE RING HERE IN BERMUDA... THEN I DREW A PISTOL AND ——

NANCY! LET ME SEE THAT ADDRESS!

1-12

MEANWHILE...AT A NEAR-BY STATION ON THE NARROW GAUGE RAILROAD, X-9...

WHERE IS THAT COPPERHEAD? PROBABLY IN THIS CROWD...

DR. BOBBS

WHAT DO YOU MEAN, IT'S A DUD? HAVE YOU TRIED IT OUT?

YES!—AND THEY HAVEN'T STOPPED LAUGHING YET!

WHO ARE THEY?

THE BOYS IN NO. 2 BROOKHAVEN—THAT'S MY MINE!

HERE'S WHAT I MEAN—YOU STRAP IT ON, SEE? IT'S FINE—NO DUST—NO GLUB-GLUB-GLUB-GLUBBER!

WHAT DID YOU SAY?

THAT'S IT! YOU CAN'T MAKE YOURSELF UNDERSTOOD! AND CONVERSATION TO A MINER IS AS NECESSARY AS AIR! BESIDES IT'S SO HEAVY! YOU GET A CRICK IN YOUR NECK JUST FROM WEARING IT!

Joe Louis' hardest punch

THE HARDEST punch Joe Louis ever landed was the one that knocked out Buddy Baer in the New York Garden. It was a savage right hand blow delivered as Louis' physically fit body shot forward. Every ounce of power that the "Brown Bomber" could muster was behind the smash.

Baer was crouched forward a bit trying to protect his jaw as the winning wallop approached him. Buddy, six feet six and a half inches tall and weighing 250 pounds, looked like a mountain about to be hit by the wild whirl of a hurricane.

Louis' punch cut inside of Baer's guard and landed flush on the jaw. Probably because Louis was sweeping forward at the time and had his 206¾ pounds behind the punch, Baer was lifted clean off his feet. There was a distance of two or three inches between Buddy's feet and the canvas of the ring as he shot into space.

Baer's body went backwards completely out of control. Buddy's legs beat around in the air in a desperate effort to find a place to rest them. The force of Louis' punch sent Baer's body skyrocketing through space like a shell shot out of a cannon.

Gravity finally overcame the desire of Baer's body to keep moving. The giant's head crashed in the direction of the floor of the ring.

When Baer's head hit the canvas, it bounced six inches in the air, and then fell back against the resin and dust. Buddy landed on his back and for six seconds was motionless.

Louis stood in a corner of the ring looking down at his prostrate opponent, and figuring out how he would hit him again if he got up. At the count of six the giant on the floor started to move, but fortunately for himself the count of 10 was tolled off before he could get up. If Louis had hit Baer again, he probably would have knocked him out to about the 25th row of the ringside.

When Jack Dempsey knocked Jess Willard and Firpo he did not display any greater punching power than Louis did as he kayoed Baer.

Louis' Viciousness

It was a determined, vicious Louis who knocked out Baer. I do not believe Louis' attitude was due to the fact Baer had knocked him through the ropes in the first round of their bout in Washington last May. I prefer to accept Louis' own explanation.

"I knew I was going into the Army right after the bout," Joe told me. "I didn't know if I would ever defend my title again and I wished to go out at the top of boxing form with punches blazing from both hands."

If Billy Conn had been in Baer's place, he would have been knocked out. Maybe Billy might have lasted longer than did Buddy, but the champion would have caught up with him.

Louis in some of his bouts has shown a tendency to go along easily . . . He has picked the spots to his punches and has not risked injuring his hands. Against Baer the champion did not seem to worry about his hands. He drove punch after punch with every bit of energy and power he could get behind them.

Louis Joins Army

The action was so fast that many of the spectators, who were not versed in the fine points of boxing and who were unable to follow the speedy action, did not know what happened. For those persons perched close to the ring who have the ability to follow each movement in the ring and see the effects of crushing blows it was a fistic drama that will long be remembered.

I think Louis received as much of a thrill out of later going to Army headquarters and announcing he was ready to enter service as he did when he kayoed Baer. The dead pan expression left Joe's face as he told of his desire to serve Uncle Sam in any capacity. Joe said he did not have any preference for any particular branch of service.

"I shall serve where my superiors send me," said Louis simply.

Louis' decision to enter the Army made a great hit with the public and with men in the service. On the way back to Boston from New York, I talked with service men in the Army and in the Navy and they were elated that Louis had joined the service.

"Louis' enlistment will help the morale of our soldiers everywhere," Lieut. Eli Gilbert of Mattapan, now stationed in the Carolinas, told me.

"I wish Joe had come into the Navy with us," said a bluejacket on his way home on leave to Holyoke.

"We are all happy Louis has come into the Army," said a colonel who acted as a spokesman for a group of officers.

I think the mothers and fathers of boys in service will feel happy to know that the world's No. 1 fighting man has placed Army service ahead of his million dollar title.

It is impossible to measure the amount of good Louis has done for the morale of service groups.

USGA DECISION TO QUIT HIT AS BACKWARD STEP

By BILL GRIMES

In the event that the Massachusetts Golf Association pursues the same course as the U. S. G. A. and cancels its major tournaments, the state amateur and state open, what will be the incentive for member clubs sponsoring open tournaments this coming season?

Whether they realize it or not, the executive committee of the M. G. A. has an important decision to render tomorrow, when it will meet to decide on sponsoring or cancelling the amateur and open titular events.

If the M. G. A. votes against the continuance of its two major championships, the member clubs, many of which have been losing money annually through their promotion of open tournaments, may elect to follow suit, which will be a black eye to the government's physical fitness project.

From the impressions gained from an interview with Pres. M. P. Merritt, the M. G. A. will fall in line with the U. S. G. A.

However, Merritt was on both sides of the fence, according to the interview. First, he admitted that he felt as though both major championships should be called off. Then, he stated that "golf, like other recreational sports, will be of great value in maintaining morale."

Also, it is Merritt's opinion that with so many star golfers in the service, a victory in the state amateur or open would be rather an empty honor.

FORGET MARTIN

He must have lost track of the fact that Leo Martin captured the state amateur crown last year at Longmeadow from a field of 60 contenders.

And, too, golfers, who compete in state championships are in a better position than any M. G. A. executive to determine whether or not they can afford the time from their respective businesses to play.

Although it may require five days to decide a state amateur championship, all of the contestants with the exception of the 32 qualifiers, can be back at work on the second day. And, the state open is only a two-day affair.

The U. S. G. A. struck its colors without firing a shot in the defense of golf. It voted to abandon the national amateur, open, public links and women's championships. It was a typical U. S. G. A. decision, thoughtless as well as absolutely contrary to the wishes of the United States government, which is stressing physical fitness and morale.

CHARITABLE SOLE, SAYS YOU

One of the U. S. G. A. reasons for the cancellation of its four championships was the desire of the officers to give their complete attention to exhibitions and other golf competition for the benefit of war charities. That is ridiculous.

What do the executives of the U.S.G.A. know about promoting exhibition matches for charity?

Although it will not admit the fact, the P.G.A. doesn't see eye to eye with the U.S.G.A. Golf is a business with the members of the P.G.A. The Royal and Ancient game is a means to a social end for each and every member of the U.S.G.A.

CORCORAN IDEAL PROMOTER

Under the guiding hand of Freddie Corcoran, the P.G.A. has raised many thousands of dollars for various charities. The U.S.G.A. is not qualified to tell Freddie Corcoran

Olympics Win Trophy With Double Victory

After nearly four years of trying, the Boston Olympics finally landed their first championship and trophy—the first half of the Eastern Amateur League race and the James J. Walker Trophy that goes with it.

They accomplished this feat over the weekend when they set back the Johnstown Blue Birds from Pa., their nearest rivals at the time, twice; 3-2 in overtime Saturday night and 8-1 yesterday afternoon.

Coach Hago Harrington's skaters have two games remaining in the Walker Cup series but they are so far out front—nine points—that it doesn't make any difference.

The local puckchasers will have to wait until next Sunday before they can start their drive for the Boardwalk Cup, emblematic of the second half title.

THREE VISITORS

The two remaining games of the Walker Cup race will take place this week at the Garden. The Rovers will be here Wednesday night and Baltimore visits the North Station rink Saturday evening. And on Sunday night the Pics entertain River Vale, the game starting the usual time 8:30. This is their only Sunday night game of the year.

In taking a double win over the Blue Birds the O's stretched their newest win streak to six. They hung up these victories in the small space of nine days, having started the string a week ago Saturday in Atlantic City.

Their longest streak this year was seven made at the start of the campaign.

10,091 FANS ON HAND

The Johnstown club gave the Pics a battle for the first two periods of the Sabbath Day game which was witnessed by an official paid attendance of 10,091, but completely fell to pieces in the last chapter and the Pics blasted five goals past Frank Ceryance.

Jack McGill and Jake Wade, the scoring twins of the second line, were the leading tally getters with two apiece. The former also was credited with assisting on two other goals

I'LL TAKE JAPS TWO AT A TIME, SAYS LOUIS

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (INS)—Joe Louis, the fightin' man, grinned at a couple of Army doctors on Governor's Island today and said: "You doctors is just wastin' you time—I just come out of training."

Champion Joe, the thoroughbred of boxing, got up at 7 o'clock for his trip to the island to report to the Army, preliminary to induction into the service.

Arriving at the ferry slip with his manager, Julian Black, and Mike Jacobs, Joe was given a big cheer by persons around the dock including a number of other prospective soldiers and he grinned like a big kid.

Nothing has so pleased Joe in his years as champion as the manner in which his personal popularity has soared since he first announced his willingness to defend his title "not for nothing but for my country." They asked Joe what he would do if he was up against the Japanese.

"I guess I'd defend myself," Joe said. "The Japs don't have no heavyweights—mebbe I could take on a couple of them."

JOHNNY SHKOR HEADS NEBA LIST OF CHAMPS

The New England Boxing Ass'n, composed of members of the various New England boxing commissions, today named the ring kings for this section of the country.

The champions are Johnny Shkor, heavyweight; Italian Jack Dempsey, light heavyweight; Coley Welsh, middleweight; Mike Kaplan, welterweight; Dave Castilloux, lightweight; Bib Poison Ivy, featherweight; Ernie Burke, bantamweight; no flyweight champion.

The New England Ass'n is headed by Maj. Samuel O. Smith of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission who has been elected president.

The other officers are Frank Cosky, Connecticut, first vice-president; T. F. Landregan, New Hampshire, second vice-president; G. R. Young, Maine, third vice-president; Maurice J. Landers, Connecticut, secretary; C. Desmond Wadsworth, Massachusetts, treasurer; Edwin C. Foster, Rhode Island, co-ordinator.

The new association will insist that the champions defend their titles when called upon to do so. The ratings in the various classes are as follows:

HEAVYWEIGHTS

Johnny Shkor, Tony Shucco, Charles Eagle, Bill Weinberg, George Fitch, Al McCoy.

LIGHT HEAVYWEIGHTS

Italian Jack Dempsey, Ted Lowry, Jimmy Young, Abe Gonsalves.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS

Coley Welch, Henry Chmielewski, Howell King, Frankie Nelson, Tony Almeida, Johnny Seaman, Jack Caparell.

WELTERWEIGHTS

LIGHTWEIGHTS

Dave Castilloux, Beau Jack, Angelo Rodano, Julie Kogan, Al Dutra, Bobby Buffin, Georgie Salamone, Heny Mellody.

FEATHERWEIGHTS

Bob Poison Ivy, Sal Bartolo, Abe Denner, Willie Pep, Snooks Lacey, Larry Bolvin, Florant Desmarias, Jackie Harris.

BANTAMWEIGHTS

GRID STAR M'LEAN 'FAIR' AFTER CRASH

Raymond "Ray" McLean, 27-year-old "mighty mite" of the championship Chicago Bears and former captain of St. Anselm College football team, was reported in fair condition today at Choate Memorial Hospital after an automobile crash in which a companion was killed and two others injured in Woburn.

Ray McLean

William Kidder, 30, of North Billerica, was killed instantly and Alfred Mahoney, 30, and his wife, Esther, 30, also of North Billerica, were injured.

Police said that McLean's machine went out of control and plunged into a ditch. Both he and Mahoney suffered head injuries, while Mrs. Mahoney was discharged when it was found her hurts were minor.

McLean, at 155 pounds, was perhaps the lightest halfback in professional football and one of its outstanding open field runners.

In his days at St. Anselm, McLean was one of the top scorers of small college football and constantly ran through and around such crack teams as turned out by Boston College and Holy Cross.

Back from a campaign throughout the West that saw him winning most of his matches, The Angel, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, faces a different proposition Wednesday night when he goes against Chief Osley Saunooke, 300-pound Cherokee Indian, in the feature event of Promoter Paul Bowser's weekly tournament at the Boston Arena.

A portion of the gross receipts will be given the New England Frontier Defence Sector, whose soldiers are guarding our sea coasts.

Trojan Gridmen Star Scholars

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (AP)—Quarterback Bill Bundy, and End Bobby Jones, who recently completed three years with the University of Southern California varsity football team, have brains as well as brawn. Phi Beta Kappa made Jones a member, and both Jones and Bundy were elected to Phi Kappa Phi, another honorary scholarship group.

Albatross Assigned Top Weight

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 12 (AP)—The first major test for newly-turned three-year-olds will be provided Saturday in the 12th running of the $5000 added Hialeah Stakes, at six furlongs.

Coldstream Stable's Albatross, unbeaten in four races at Hialeah as a two-year-old, drew top weight of 120 pounds. Twenty-five others were nominated.

Ten horses are in at 116 pounds, including Mrs. S. S. Zell's Incoming, Mrs. A. Sherman's American Wolf and L. L. Haggin's Air Current.

Mrs. Al Sabath's 1941 two-year-old champion, Alsab, was not entered.

The race is the first of three important Hialeah stakes for three-year-olds, the others being the $5000 Bahamas Handicap and the $25,000 Flamingo.

McCARTHY SURE YANKS SET; DRAFT FAILS TO WORRY JOE

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 12 (AP)—Marse Joe McCarthy is confident that despite war conditions his world champion New York Yankees "are going to be tough again."

The 54-year-old Yankee manager expects to open the 1942 campaign with virtually the same team that won last year's World Series, providing Uncle Sam doesn't call too many of his players into the armed services.

Further, McCarthy is prepared to take the war and its possible inroads on his playing talent in stride.

"After all," he continued, "the other major league clubs are in the same boat."

FIRST BASE UNSETTLED

He's still in doubt about a first baseman with Johnny Strum due to report for Army induction next month—but he's far from worried. His biggest problem is choosing between Buddy Hassett, recently acquired from the Boston Braves, and Tommy Henrich, who fields the position like a veteran although normally an outfielder.

Third base also might present a slight problem with Red Rolfe still on the sick list.

"It all depends on Rolfe's health," McCarthy observed, pointing out that Second Baseman Gerald Priddy, who came up with Phil Rizzuto from Kansas City last year, could play third if necessary.

McCarthy said his infield probably would include Rizzuto at shortstop and Joe Gordon at second again with Frank Crosetti available for relief duty.

"Priddy is a much better hitter than his last year's record indicates," Joe asserted, "and he should be a real asset to the team this year."

NEW BATTERY

Among the newcomers McCarthy expects to work into the lineup are Pitcher John Lindell, a righthander who won more than 20 games for Newark last year to lead the International League, and Ziggie Sears, hard-hitting Newark catcher.

With Joe DiMaggio, Charley Keller and George Selkirk heading the parade of clouting Yankee outfielders, and a veteran pitching staff on hand, McCarthy pointed out there are two big problems for the opposition:

"Yes, sir; our pitching and hitting are going to be real problems for the other clubs."

BC-BU SEXTETS RENEW RIVALRY ON ARENA ICE

Rindge Tech and Cambridge Latin will be well represented when B. C. and B. U. clash in the feature game of a New England College Hockey Conference double-header at the Arena tonight. M. I. T. and the University of New Hampshire will meet in the secondary game.

Three of Boston College's starting six are residents of Cambridge Capt. Ralph Powers, graduate of Rindge Tech, and Wally Boudreau are wing and center, respectively on the first Eagle line. Phil Carey, third Cantab on the starting six, is a sensational sophomore goalie. Boudreau and Carey are graduates of Cambridge High and Latin School.

Capt. Henry "Hank" Sullivan, acrobatic and exceptionally clever Terirer goalie, is the fourth player who hails from Cambridge. "Hank" and Eagle Capt. Powers were teammates on the great Rindge Tech six which captured the championship of the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League in 1938.

TERRIERS POINT FOR B. C.

Boston University, improving with each succeeding game, has been pointing for the Boston College game. Opening their season by getting socked by Yale, the Waylie Vaughan mentored Terriers have com a long way since that day in early December. Only last week Boston University gave Dartmouth, one of the best collegiate units in the land, a terrific argument before the Indians posted a 4-3 victory. The game was played in sub-zero weather on the Indians outdoor rink at Hanover, N. H.

The favored Eagles will have to show improvement over their play in recent games with Tech and New Hampshire. Though it won both of these games, Boston College didn't show the hockey it displayed in tipping Yale Dec 13 in New Haven.

TITLE AT STAKE

Boston University will have all kinds of incentive goading it on tomorrow night. In the first place the winner of the game will automatically become the favorite to cop the N. E. League championship, which has gone to Boston College in the last two seasons.

Boston College's 22 straight streak in loop competition are all incentives which are expected to put Boston University in the right frame of mind. In league competition Boston College has won "three for three; Boston University has posted "two for two."

Weekend Sports In Brief

NEW YORK — United States Golf Association voted to cancel its four 1942 national tournaments —amateur, public links, open and women's—because it expects many of the potential qualifiers will be in the service or too busy with defense work.

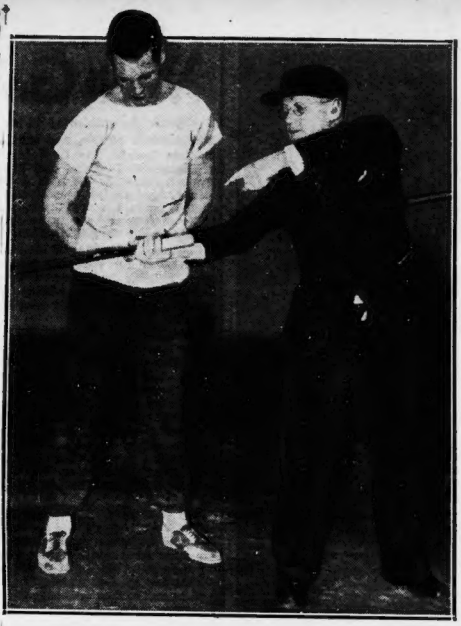
NEW YORK — Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, without a bump or a bruise from his one-round triumph over Buddy Baer Friday night, announced he would take his physical examination Monday and be inducted into the Army on Wednesday.

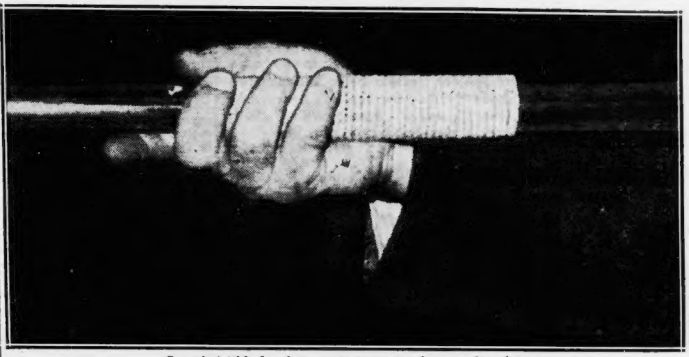
NEW WINDSOR, Md. — Blue Ridge College cancels basketball program because two of nine players were lost to the selective service and "general financial conditions."

DETROIT—Detroit offers to restore depleted golf calendar with match of nation's best amateurs against Ryder Cup pros next July.

ATLANTA — University of the South, Spring Hill College, Howard, Erskine and Mercer drop intercollegiate football for duration of war.

MADISON, Wis.—Howard Odell, assistant University of Pennsylvania football coach the past four seasons, named backfield mentor at the University of Wisconsin.





Coach Mikkola shows proper grip for javelin throw

MIKKOLA FIRM BELIEVER IN JAVELIN

At its winter meeting the Big Ten Conference decided to eliminate the javelin throw from track meets under its jurisdiction on the grounds that too many good athletes were hurt throwing this ancient weapon, plus the questionable fact that there wasn't much interest in it anyway.

But a former Finnish javelin champ and Olympic coach, Jaako Mikkola, genial Harvard track mentor, is irked by all this fuss against his first athletic love and has come forward with the statement that if athletes knew how to throw the javelin, then there wouldn't be any broken wrists, arms, backs, strained and torn muscles.

"Forty years ago," said Jaako, who has been teaching Crimson cinder stars since 1926, "I, too, hurt myself throwing the javelin, but I soon found out my trouble, smoothed out my form, and now I can say there isn't a boy I coach in this event who doesn't know the right form."

Jaako proceeded to illustrate the correct form with the aid of his best weight men, Bob and Jack Fisher, two of four sons of the former football coach, Bob Fisher.

HERE'S HOW

"First of all, the proper grip is essential. Grasp the javelin with the middle finger behind and the index finger extended lightly along the javelin. Then, after a running start, execute the throw itself in five steps. If you are right-handed, step first with the right foot, crooking your elbow at an angle of about 120 degrees.

"Take the second step with the left foot, fully extending your arm.

"The third step is perhaps the most important, for here, unless you cross your right leg in front of the left, you may break your back. The fourth step, with the left foot, brings the finest points into play.

"With legs wide apart as possible, throw the javelin forward and up with terrific speed and pass your bent elbow as nearly as possible directly over your shoulder.

SURE WEIGHT REDUCER

"The big mistake of men who throw incorrectly is that they throw the javelin with their elbows extended from the shoulder, instead of as close to the head as possible and over the shoulder.

"With the javelin having just left the hand, the fifth step is to change your feet as quickly as possible and then follow through with your whole body."

Zullo, Allard Top Lynn Fight Card

Jerry Zullo of Chelsea clashes with Bobby Allard of Lynn in the feature contest of eight rounds at the Lynn Arena next Friday night.

In the semi-final of six rounds, Dave Andrews, former National amateur champion, will try to keep his pro record clean when he takes on Johnny Lucas of Middleton. In another six Eddie Di Angeles of Revere meets the Blonde Tiger of Lowell. There will be two other bouts on the program.

Devore New End Coach At Cross

WORCESTER, Jan. 12 (INS)—Hugh Devore, former head coach at Providence College and a star end under Knute Rockne, has been hired as end coach at Holy Cross College.

Devore hails from Newark, N. J. At Notre Dame he was a teammate of Frank Leahy, present Notre Dame coach, and was end coach at Fordham under Jim Crowley.

PERRY REMARRIES

ELKTON, Md., Jan. 11 (AP)—Fred Perry, professional tennis star and former amateur world champion, was remarried today to Dorothy Breau Perry "for purpose of record in the United States."

HERE'S HOW—Coach Jaako Mikkola of the Harvard track squad continues to teach the Crimson lads how to throw the javelin even though the event is no longer on the Ivy track slate. Bob Fisher, Jr., son of the former grid mentor, seems interested in the discourse of how it's done.

PALEFACE G. C. OPENS DOORS TO MARKSMEN

Even if you cannot take up arms in the service of your country or do your bit in the great defense plants, you can become proficient in the use of firearms.

For, every New England citizen who wishes to learn how to shoot will be given the opportunity by the co-operation of the numerous gun clubs in this part of the country.

The William Randolph Hearst Citizen Marksmanship Board for the New England area is contacting all clubs for the purpose of becoming civilian instructors and advisors in their respective communities.

All the facts of this great Hearst enterprise will be available in the near future. But to show the spirit of patriotism and co-operation now so prevalent among the gun clubs one has but to tell of Walter Clark of the Paleface Gun Club of Medford. Walter wrote in to say that all members of his club are willing to instruct prospective marksmen which in our way of thinking is a mighty fine gesture.

Clark went on to say that if civilians were interested in rifle shooting only, he felt certain that there were some members of the club well qualified to help out in that department.

The Paleface Club is located on Riverside ave., at the foot of Hall st. It can be reached by going out the Fellsway and in the vicinity of the WEEI broadcasting towers.

Entries for the Hearst shoot close Jan. 30 but the clubs entering can help the board along greatly by forwarding their blank as soon as possible.

HAWKS CLIP RED WINGS IN TAME TILT

By the Associated Press

While the leaders came to almost a dead halt, lesser lights in the National Hockey League played among themselves over the week-end with the Brooklyn Americans splitting with Montreal by identical scores.

Other contests saw Detroit smear Toronto, 6 to 4, on the Leaf ice Saturday night and the Red Wings dropping a 6 to 5 decision to the Chicago Blackhawks Sunday.

It was the first meeting of the Red Wings and Hawks since their three-round bout of Jan. 1 and hopes of a repetition lured 17,604 spectators to the Chicago rink.

TOO BUSY TO FIGHT

Except for a bit of pushing at an Adam Brown-Bill Carse face-off, the players were too busy scoring points to fight.

The Hawks built up a 6-to-2 advantage in the first two periods and then watched as the Red Wings whittled it down to a single goal in the final stanza.

Brooklyn, after traveling to Montreal for a triumph Saturday, returned the courtesy last night by losing on their own ice to the Canadiens by the same count.

The blanking of the Americans was the first shutout in the big league for rookie Goalie Paul Bibeault. It halted a Brooklyn string at three.

Johnny Quilty put the Canadiens ahead early in the first period, and then Pete Morin made it sure with another goal in the final.

BRUINS FACE WINGS

The Detroit win Saturday night and the American loss to the Canadiens avoided a wholesale shuffling in the lower half of the standings. The Red Wings now have 20 points, Brooklyn 19, and Montreal is in the cellar with 15.

Boston, still in the lead with 33 points, resumes action tomorrow, with Detroit as the guest, but the big game is the meeting between Rangers and Brooklyn at Madison Square Garden.

New York has not been shut out in 77 games and a tally means a new record. Manager Red Dutton has promised that his young net minder, Charles (Butcher Boy) Raynor, will blank the Blue Shirts.

A Ranger victory will break the New Yorkers' deadlock for second with Toronto. The runnerup now are only two points behind the Bruins.

U. S. Court Squad Sweep Mexicans

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12 (AP)—A group of United States tennis stars touring Latin America completed a clean sweep of their Mexican three-day series. The scores: Katherine Winthrop defeated Maria Tapia de Roldan 7—5, 9—7; Sarah Palfrey Cooke defeated Aurora Legorreta 6—1, 6—3; Elwood Cooke defeated Rolando Vega 6—1, 6—4; and Don McNeill defeated Eugenio Tapia, 6—1, 6—1.

Canadians Vote Knickerbocker Most Valuable

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 12 (AP)—The Canadian-American Baseball League Writers' Ass'n voted to award its "most valuable player for 1941" trophy to Austin Knickerbocker, outfielder-infielder.

Knickerbocker, who batted .407 for a new Canadian-American record and has been drafted by Jersey City of the International League, will receive the trophy sometime during the coming season.

The Canadian-American League's annual meeting was postponed to Feb. 1.

IT WAS anybody's ball as this action shot shows in the game between the Washington Huskies and the Idaho Vandals. The Huskies won 36-28. Shown battling for the ball are Washington's Chick Gilmur, No. 15, and Bill Morris, No. 17, with Idaho's Ted Thompson, No. 5, and Ray Turner, No. 14.

how to conduct exhibition matches. Where can it get its talent?

Amateurs couldn't draw a corporal's guard for the most worthy charity unless they were aided and abetted by professionals, who will not appear unless they are assigned by Corcoran.

For the U. S. G. A. to announce that the U. S. open would be little more than a medal play tournament for the professionals without the amateur stars, who are now in the armed service, was equally as ridiculous as its urge to promote exhibition matches.

There have been 45 national open championships. Since the first U. S. open was held at Newport, R. I. in 1895, only five amateurs have won the title. And, moreover, only four simon pures were runners up, and two of them were tied with professionals for second place.

PROS PREDOMINATE

Johnny Goodman, who has never been able to satisfy the U. S. G. A. that he is, was or ever had been a simon pure, won the national open in Chicago back in 1933. But, since that year, the title has been held by professionals. Amateurs are not figured to win U. S. opens, since Bobby Jones quit and it's very doubtful if the title will ever leave the pro ranks.

Before voting on the issue at hand tomorrow, the M. G. A. executive committee should study the problem from all angles. The future of golf may rest in their hands.

Sforza, Luciano In Semi-Final

Al Sforza, North End and Al Luciano, Lynn, will clash in the 8-round semi-final of the weekly Boston Boxing Association show next Friday night at Mechanics Building.

This bout will be the semi-final to a 10-round main bout between Henry Chmielewski, Cambridge, and Frankie Nelson, Roxbury.

44 Amateur Ringmen Wait Gong at Arena

With the entries of 44 New England's leading amateur mittmen already on file, and the lists being held open until weighing-in time tonight, the final tryout of the annual Diamond Belt Tournament, staged by the Irish American A. A. at Boston Arena tonight, should produce more thrills and chills than have been in evidence at any similar show this season.

Bouts will be held in 12 classes—8 divisions for the open weight boys, ranging from flyweights to heavyweights, and 4 divisions for novices at 126, 135, 147 and 160 pounds.

Tonight's winners in the 12 classes, as well as the victors in the three previous elimination shows, will clash in the finals of the Diamond Belt Tournament at the Arena next Monday night. From the result of the "Belt" finals, the eight winners in the open classes will be named members of the Boston team to take part in the Grand All-America Finals, to be held at Boston Garden on Jan. 26

The card for tonight's final tryout is as classy as will be found in any simon-pure show. Many of the boys have already won other big-time titles during the current season and are out tonight to earn a place on the Diamond Belt Finals program. Among the better known performers are George Baker, Lynn, and Joe Hebert, Lowell, in the 112; George Vitagliano, Medford; Eddie O'Grady, Hyde Park, and Frank Martin, Plymouth, in the 118; Bobby Zollo, Providence; Al White, Framingham, and Frank Gassiraro, E. Boston, in the 126; Romeo Paris, Fitchburg; Frank Toscano, Boston; Roger LaPerle, Worcester, and Leo Boulard, Lowell, in the 135.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 12 (AP)—Paul Shelley, the youngest state racing commission secretary in Florida's history, has resigned his $4800-a-year post to begin active duty as a first lieutenant of field artillery.

HARRY COOPER LEADS PARADE IN COAST TILT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12 (INS)—Continuing a blistering sub-par pace, the veteran "Lighthorse Harry" Cooper of Oak Park, Ill., took over the undivided leadership of the 17th annual $10,000 Los Angeles open golf tournament.

Cooper shot a two-below par 70, for a 54-hole total of 69-71-70—210.

He will enter the final round of 18 holes today with a two-stroke edge over his closest rival, Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa. Hogan, top money winner of 1941, dropped behind Cooper after matching him stroke for stroke during the first two days. He shot a par to wind up his 54 holes with 70-70-72—212.

On the heels of the two leaders were Jimmy Thomson of Del Monte, Cal., and Sammy Snead of Hot Springs, Va., each with 213. Each has shot a par 72, and a sub-par 70 and a 71, leaving the first four men in the tournament with nothing but par and sub par rounds.

Horton Smith, of Pinehurst, N. C., who led the first day's play with a 68, clung to the pace by shooting a par round for a total of 68—74—72—214.

The surprise of the day was young Chick Harbert of Battle Creek, Mich., who came from nowhere to challenge the leaders with a round score of 73—73—69—215. He was tied with Willie Goggin of White Plains, N. Y.

Silver Skates Derby Booster Of Public Morale--Lew Hall

Lew Hall, president of the Rhode Island Skating Club, has long been one of the greatest boosters of the famed American-Record Silver Skates Derby.

FAMILY TOUCH—Lew Hall, left, president of the Rhode Island Skating Club, talks over the Silver Skates situation with his two sons, Lew, Jr., in center and Robert at right. Both were entered in the Derby but Lew, Jr., is now in the hospital recovering from an operation but Robert will carry on.

Annually, he enters most of his club members including his own sons and this year he is as enthusiastic about the coming indoor classic at the Boston Garden Sunday afternoon as ever.

Bernard and Robert, two of Lou's sons have entered the great event but Lew, Jr., was rushed to the hospital for an appendix operation and will have to forego the great event this year.

Naturally, Lew, Sr., will be on hand to root for his son and his R. I. members. In a letter to Ben Levias, Lew told about the skaters and also stated his views on sports during this world crisis which are worth reprinting. He stated:

FOR MAINTAINING SPORTS

"This is right from the shoulder—personally, I think all sports should be maintained. It would be a big factor in keeping up the morale of the people. It would help greatly in giving the boys who are now in Uncle Sam's great Army some entertainment.

"By keeping sports alive these boys in the armed forces will be able to step back into their favorite sport when this conflict ends.

"So, we should boost and help all sports such as the Silver Skates Derby. The sponsors have put all their efforts into it in order to keep it on the sports calendar so that it will give our sons and daughters something to look forward to every year.

"There is nothing on the face of the earth by which our children can build good health and good sportsmanship better than by competing in clean sports such as the Boston American Silver Skates Derby."

EXPECT 15,000 SPECTATORS

And it is because of the attitude of men like Lew Hall and the hundreds of skaters throughout New England that the American-Record has made this an annual event.

It's a competition where fathers and sons, brothers and sisters all take part and where some 15,000 turn out to see a grand afternoon of entertainment.

In keeping with the thought of a good time for all, the seats are priced within the range of everybody. The highest priced seat for a reserved section Sunday afternoon will be 55 cents.

It's a takein more than well worth seeing.

PROFICIENCY TEST HELPFUL TO SKIERS

By "TAP" GOODENOUGH

Improve your skiing ability! That is the purpose of the Proficiency Tests which are run in various Winter Sports Centers under supervision of the United States Eastern Amateur Ski Association.

Several of these tests were given last week-end and many more will be conducted during the season.

Here is a chance for those interested in progress to compare themselves to last season. Taking a test early in a year gives the competitor an opportunity to complete his third class test so he may try for his downhill classification before the real racing begins.

Feeling that there was too large a gap between the third and fourth class test, the commitee has stiffened the later to 10 parts including side slipping and long traverses, and judges have been advised to be more critical of the ability shown by the candidate.

WRITE TO BRIGGS

There have been a few other changes in the third and second class, but mainly in the degree of slo, e required or the type of slalom advised.

The committee also feels that if a candidate selects the slalom as part four of the third class test, he may have on the same day, run the downhill requirement as a time trial for "C" classification, but this is left to the discretion of the local classification board.

For further information and copies of the various tests write to L. E. Briggs, Mass. State College, Amherst, Mass. Contact your local ski club or skiing center for time and place the tests will be held.

SKI TROOP SHOTS: Comes a letter from Ed Lydiard, clerk of the Belknap County Commissioners at Laconia, N. H., telling us that he liked our story on ski troops in a recent issue. Ed wonders why a battery with a full complement is taken way off to Texas to train for a year and one-half in the hot sun when they all can ski to a certain extent. Close to 75 per cent of them were good skiers, and at least 25 per cent of them were fine skiers, most of whom had competed in winter sports events.

Such was the case with the local battery. It seems to him that these were the men who should be training the green troops in the art of skiing for military purposes.

Says Ed: "They might well have tied in with the training course in the Belknap area, particularly in view of the fact that all the facilities for skiing were available here. Here may be found a concentrated, diversified answer to defense needs. The nearly-completed $750,000 airport is near the Recreation Area. This area also overlooks four lakes in this section; namely Winnepesaukee, Winnisquam, Paugus, and Opechee, affording surfaces for regular and emergency landings in winter, and pontoon landings in the open-water season, all of which is within 15 minutes by air from the Atlantic ocean."

KRAMER WINS TITLE

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 12 (AP)—Jack Kramer, Oakland, Cal., star, toppled Wayne Sabin, top-seeded entry from Portland, Ore., 6—0, 6—0, 6—3, to win the men's singles title in the Dixie tennis tournament.

KRAMER WHIPS SABIN

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 12 (AP) — Jack Kramer, Oakland, Cal., star, won the men's singles title in the Dixie tennis tournament here. The Californian defeated Wayne Sabin, top-seeded entry from Portland, Ore., in straight sets, 6—0, 6—0, 6—3.

Fitchburg Lass Sweeps Ice At Saratoga

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Jan. 12 (AP)—Ted Ellenwood and Carmelita Landry flashed to clean-sweep victories in the closing rounds of the 11th Annual Eastern States speed skating champion ships.

Ellenwood, defending champion from Ft. Johnson, took the 220-yard event in 18.4 seconds, a fifth of a second shy of the world record. Annexing also the half-mile sprint, he ran up a winning 120 points.

Miss Landry of Fitchburg, National and North American title-holder, rang up a 90-point total by outdistancing Virginia Jahn, defending champion from Cresskill, N. J., over the 440-yard course.

MAESTRO ORRIN TUCKER SAYS:
"THANKS TO WARNER MY HAIR IS AN ASSET I'LL KEEP"

BOSTON, Jan. 11 (J.W.)—Orrin Tucker, whose famous band is heard over the air from coast to coast and now appearing at the Keith Boston Theatre knows that his good head of hair is a real asset. Naturally he consults John E. Warner as have so many leaders in every field.

You may not lead a band or be in the public eye, but your hair, too, is a real asset, for the world today puts a high premium on personal appearance. It will pay you to find out the true condition of your hair and scalp and will cost you nothing. A private consultation with John E. Warner and Associates is always without charge or obligation and if your case is accepted for treatment you can be reasonably sure of saving and improving your hair.

The offices of John E. Warner and Associates are conveniently located at suite 320, Little Building, corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets. Fees for treatment are very moderate and are payable as the treatments are taken, not in advance. Hours 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily —Saturdays to 6 p. m. Phone Hub. 1705. There is a separate department for women.

Warner Associates from Coast to Coast—Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Los Angeles and Hartford, Hartford, Connecticut, Trust Co. Building—750 Main St.
